Have You Seen the Program for Excellence Online Manual?

Recently, Chi Psi launched a full online manual for the Program for Excellence. Complete with event planning and organization tips, strategies for establishing standards within Alphas, and ideas for rewarding success, the manual outlines exactly how Alphas can incorporate the Program for Excellence into daily operations with a complete list of event ideas that exemplify the program's message. This manual is a great tool for all Alpha leadership and will surely facilitate each of our Alphas in their pursuit of excellence.

Mu Delta Gets Progressive

The Brothers of Mu Delta at Rollins College recently participated in a campus-wide eco-friendly progressive dinner with other Greek and Residential Organizations. Organization house managers coordinated the safari-themed event, allowing members of each organization to travel throughout the Rollins campus for different sustainable foods.. Read more...

#7 Dr. Dan Ahlberg and #23 Sam Bessey Drop In On a Few Alumni in NYC

On a recent trip to the New York City area, #7 Dr. Daniel Ahlberg, N`67, and #23 Sam Bessey, HA`97, hosted a Meet and Greet for area alumni. The casual event gave New York area Brothers the opportunity to reconnect with old Chi Psi friends and make new ones. Read more...

Chick-fil-A...Closed Sunday

Have you ever eaten at Chick-fil-A? For me, it doesn't get much better than an order of nuggets accompanied by a chocolate milkshake. Especially with football here, I can foresee many times when I will wake up late Sunday morning, want to grab a quick bite at Chick-fil-A and then crash to watch some football. This won't happen though. Chick-fil-A is closed on Sunday. Read more...
