Chronic Disease Directors Weigh In COVID-19 Response Efforts

What percentage of your state’s chronic disease and health promotion staff have been deployed to COVID-19 response efforts during this crisis?

![Pie chart showing percentage of staff deployed to COVID-19 response efforts]

Will your state Chronic Disease Unit need flexibility...

- ... on the existing commitments and deadlines with your cooperative agreements/grants and contracts? YES 87.88% NO 12.12%
- ... on due dates for upcoming NOFO application deadlines (e.g. tobacco and BRFSS?) YES 73.33% NO 26.67%

Please select which statement is true:

- My state wants flexibility to spend Federal chronic disease money on COVID-19 response efforts. 29.41%
- Other 26.47%
- We do not need flexibility to spend Federal chronic disease money on COVID-19 response efforts. 23.53%
- My state needs flexibility to spend Federal chronic disease money on COVID-19 response efforts. 20.59%

Additional comments: The survey asked for additional comments. For a sample of representative comments provided, please contact info@chronicdisease.org.

The information presented here was generated through a survey of Chronic Disease Directors representing every U.S. state and territory conducted in March 2020; 39 out of 59 total Chronic Disease Directors responded. For more information, contact info@chronicdisease.org. View other surveys of Chronic Disease Directors at ChronicDisease.org.