

Garth began his career with Black and Decker in 1995 after attending Carleton University and Mohawk College. Garth held various sales and marketing management positions before joining Hitachi Canada in 2009 as Vice President of Sales and Marketing. In October 2013, Garth joined BLANCO Canada as President.

Originally from Brockville, ON, Garth enjoys golf, skiing and spending time with his family.

Garth and his wife, Chari have two sons, Hayden and Jack and reside in Oshawa, ON.

Garth is member of the CIPH Charity Committee and was elected to the National Board of Directors in 2017.