

After graduating from Polytechnic School in Montreal in 1986 with a B.A.C. in civil engineering, Pierre worked for seven (7) years in the Municipal Environmental and Industrial divisions of the SNC–Lavalin engineering as a consulting engineer.

In 1994, he came back to the family business in Victoriaville, and one year later, became, with his brother, the third generation of owners. He had always been involved in the business, even during his studies when he worked there in the summers.

Pierre has been active on the Quebec region board of CIPH from 1996 to 2010, being involved in the "Norms & Standards" and also "hydronic" committees, as well as being the Quebec Region President from 2006 to 2008. During this period, he also participated on the MCEE (Mécanex/Climatex) Committee for 2007 and 2009. Pierre is now the Region Liaison Director for CIPH Quebec.

He's always been involved in the buying groups that they were part of. Such as serving on the board of Directors of C.M.P.H. (a partner of Canaplus buying group), from 1999 to 2011, including being President of C.M.P.H. for 2008 and 2009, as well as now being involved in Octo's Plumbing and Heating Negotiating Team.

Pierre and his spouse Chantal have three children, twins Frederique & Sandrine, and Elizabeth. He was elected to the Board in 2013.
