

Spartan Peripheral Devices introduces...

VN Series, NSF Rated, Globe-style Control Valve

Spartan Peripheral Devices is proud to present their new NSF Rated, UL certified, globe-style control valve. Cast from C87850 EcoBrass, the VN series features a G-type union compatible with quick install technologies, such as Viega and Sharkbite, to reduce labor and simplify installation. The VN series maintains compatibility with all Spartan actuators and is fully manufactured in North America.

Product Category: Controls and Instrumentation

Date Product was introduced to the Canadian Market: November 2021

Is this product CSA (or equivalent) approved? No

What is innovation or amazing about this product? Cast from C87850 EcoBrass, dezincification resistant, lead-free brass, the VN series also features a G-type connection compatible with quick connect unions from leading manufacturers to reduce labor and simplify installation.

This product is: Sustainable

