Working Together.
Strengthening Our Profession.
Improving Lives.

Get to Know CIPH

Since 1933, the Canadian Institute of Plumbing and Heating (CIPH) has been a national not-for-profit industry association serving Canada's plumbing and heating sector. We are a community of individuals, organizations, and leaders who are invested in the future of the places we work, live and play, strengthening our profession and improving lives.

Vision

Canada is a global leader in the plumbing and heating industry, as an essential part of a healthy, comfortable, and sustainable quality of life for all Canadians.

Mission

CIPH is the indispensable voice for Canada's essential and thriving plumbing and heating community.

Value Proposition

Together, we are creating better outcomes for our profession and the people who rely on it.

Strategic Pillars

CIPH is anchored by four strategic pillars that define our objectives and drive our impact across the plumbing and heating industry, delivering value-driven programs and services to our members.

- 1 Connect – Foster productive and valuable business relationships in the plumbing and heating community to support the success of a diverse and evolving industry.
- 2 Advocate – Strengthen the business climate for the plumbing and heating community by influencing product standards and regulatory outcomes, and tackling industry bottlenecks.
- 3 Inform – Provide timely and relevant data, resources, and best practices to support the sustainable growth of Canada's plumbing and heating industry.
- 4 Deliver – Streamline systems and structures, support people and teams, and ensure capabilities are in place to meet our commitment to members across Canada.
