Speaker: Todd Hirsch, ATB Senior Economist

For over 20 years, Todd has worked as an economist at numerous organizations including the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canada West Foundation and the Bank of Canada. For almost a decade, Todd taught economics at the University of Calgary. He released his first book, The Boiling Frog Dilemma: Saving Canada from Economic Decline in 2012, Halfway Home in 2016 and Spiders in Space: Successfully Adapting to Unwanted Change in 2017.

Todd provides economic commentary for many Canadian media. He currently serves on the University of Calgary Board of Governors and is the chair of the Calgary Arts Academy. Todd recently received the University of Alberta's Alumni Honour Award and an honorary degree from Mount Royal University.

Todd holds a BA Honours in Economics from the U of A and an MA in Economics from the University of Calgary.

Topic: Alberta's Economy 2019: One Thing That Matters a Little & Five Things That Matter a Lot

After surviving the worst recession in three decades, Alberta's economy started to recover in 2017 and 2018. But as the province enters 2019, the situation is uneven. What factors will weigh on Alberta this year? And looking further into the future, what are the critical elements that will shape the province?
