

Linda has been the Edmonton Region Coordinator since 1999. She owns LUE-42 Enterprises, a consultancy focused on board governance in the third sector. She is a Certified Association Executive and a Fellow of the Chartered Governance Institute of Canada. She holds a Bachelor of Administration degree and certificates in Human Resources Management and Program Evaluation. Linda is also a long-time board volunteer and is currently a public member on Council for a regulated profession. Linda is the author of two books (board-related) and 13 plays (decidedly not board-related), and is also a funeral celebrant and a devoted fan of the Canadian Football League.
