

Lisa joined the CIPH team in June 2016. She has a background working with provincial and national associations and has extensive experience working with volunteers, boards and member based organizations. Lisa received a Bachelor of Arts and a Diploma in Public Administration from Memorial University of Newfoundland.