

Claude has over 30 years of experience with associations, having been Executive Director of the Quebec Lung Association for 12 years. He acquired his management skills as a Branch Manager for the Bank of Montreal. He has served as Region Coordinator for ICPC Quebec for 18 years and also manages an association in the natural gas sector. He also has been teaching a starting business course to new immigrants for 13 years.