

Gloria joined b-creative group in 2012 after completing 25 years as a Customer Sales and Service Agent in the airline industry, where she learned importance of delivering excellent client experiences and providing positive customer service.

At b-creative, she has worked with several of the association clients in administrative roles. She has strong project management and event planning experience. In her role, she has worked with volunteers, boards and staff towards successful outcomes.