

Louis joined CIPH in 2014. With more than 10 years of accounting experience in different sectors of the Mauritian economy, Louis brings a strong working knowledge of the full accounting cycle. He has expertise in the preparation of financial budgets and financial statement and holds an advanced certificate in Bookkeeping and Accounts from the International Association of Bookkeepers.