

Ralph joined CIPH in 1988. Ralph has worked closely with industry members, associations and government over the past several years to develop codes and standards. He was appointed President & General Manager in 2002. He holds the Certified Association Executive (CAE) designation from the Canadian Society of Association Executives (CSAE) and is a graduate of York University in Toronto.