

Sarah joined CIPH in 2017 as an Administrative Assistant. She graduated from Wilfrid Laurier University with a double major in English, Women & Gender Studies in 2015. Afterwards, she went on to study at Sheridan College, graduating with a Post-Graduate Certificate in Public Relations – Corporate Communications. Sarah is responsible for assisting with the CIPH website, communications, newsletters and other administrative duties.