Resources on serving males in library: Tweens, Teens, and 20-Somethings

Tweens/Teens:

http://guysread.com/
A web-based literacy program for boys founded by author and First National Ambassador of Young People’s Literature Jon Scieszka

http://www.pbs.org/parents/raisingboys/school.html
Understanding and Raising Boys

20-Somethings:

http://pewresearch.org/millennials/
A study by the Pew Research Center on millennials, the American teens and twenty-somethings currently making the passage into adulthood.

"Silverlake Beard/Mustache Contest Brings Hairy Hipsters to L.A. Public Library" by Adam Gropman, LA Weekly, December 21, 2011

genre X: A Twenties and Thirties Book Group
http://www.genre-x.com/genre X is a twenties and thirties book discussion group facilitated by the Oak Park Public Library, Oak Park, Illinois. The genre X blog provides information & content that hopefully will appeal to readers in their twenties and thirties.

The ABCs of XYZs: Reaching Out to 20/30-Somethings
https://sites.google.com/site/reachingout2xyz/home
Website designed by librarians to provide ideas on how to reach the 20-something crowd.

If You Didn’t Work Here, Would You Come Here?
https://sites.google.com/site/plaportland2010/
Presentation from a panel of librarians at PLA 2010, which focused on how libraries can connect with quarter-life adults and young professionals.

Reaching Quarter-Life Adults and Young Professionals,” by Norman Oder, Library Journal, 03/29/10
http://www.libraryjournal.com/article/CA6724444.html
Article on 2010 PLA Presentation, If You Didn’t Work Here, Would You Come Here?