Ph.D. PROGRAM
IN FILM, TELEVISION, AND MEDIA

The UM Film, Television, and Media doctoral program emphasizes the study of representations exhibited, produced and consumed via screens—whether cinematic or televisual screens, video monitors, computer display, handheld devices, etc. We pursue screen media in their social, national, transnational, and historical contexts using historically- and theoretically-based methods from film, television, and digital studies as well as cultural and critical theory.

Land Acknowledgement

Our annual meeting will take place on the land of the Tséstho’e (Tsitsistas/Cheyenne), Hinono’ei (Arapaho), Nuu-ciui (Ute), and Očhéthi Šakówiŋ (Oceti Sakowin/People of the Seven Council Fires), a land to which nearly 50 other Indigenous nations and tribes have ties. We recognize the diverse and vibrant Indigenous cultures of Colorado and the West, who constitute a living resistance to official U.S. policies that have authorized acts of land theft, treaty violations, genocide, displacement and forced relocation, as well as contemporary systems and practices that still encroach on Indigenous lands and sovereignty. SCMS acknowledges our responsibility to participate in and support the resurgence of Indigenous Peoples, in Denver and worldwide.

Scheduling Note

Unexpected changes of plans sometimes arise between the time of printing and the dates of the conference. Please use the printed program as a general guide and consult the online program PDF for the most up-to-date information. Visit the SCMS website (https://bit.ly/SCMS2023Program) or use the QR code. Please also be sure to note the list of events on page 9. Additionally, based on the analytics of past users to labor/cost, there will not be a mobile app of the conference program this year. We will re-evaluate the need for this again in 2024.

Skipped Session Numbers

Presentation and meeting rooms at the Sheraton Denver are aligned with session numbers for the duration of the conference. As different spaces are utilized each day, please excuse any skipped session numbers!
Letter from the President

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Home Office, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2023 Society for Cinema and Media Studies conference. This year's conference is especially exciting, as it marks our first in-person gathering since 2019. After a series of canceled and remote conferences, I'm thankful to share the same physical space with you in Denver—where SCMS 2020 was scheduled before COVID-19 changed our plans, lives, and organization.

The uncertainty of the past three years and its impact on members across the globe has been a sobering reminder of all that a scholarly organization can and cannot provide. Alongside sister organizations in the American Council of Learned Societies (ACLS, a federation of 79 scholarly organizations dedicated to humanistic knowledge, including SCMS), SCMS learned just how precarious a scholarly organization's conference-based financial model can be. While the pandemic showcased the many benefits of virtual community-building, I am eager for the energy and excitement that an in-person conference panel—or a post-panel conversation—can provide. I hope you are, too!

It is clear that connected and motivated members can help sustain a community through its hardships. I deeply appreciate the many members who were able to volunteer time, energy, and care to help SCMS weather the storm of Covid-19. It was you, dear SCMS—members of SIGs and Caucuses, committees, and everyone in between—that made this possible. You organized and attended virtual SCMS+ events, created or expanded SIG writing awards, and offered helpful ideas on how SCMS can emerge from the pandemic with a renewed commitment to studying media and the community doing this work. Thank you!

I am proud to lead a Board that has been ever ready to listen, reflect, and take action on behalf of its members. Building from the pre-pandemic efforts of committees (like the Precarious Labor Organization, the Antiracism, Equity, and Diversity Committee, and more), the Board was able to move to remote operations while creatively addressing long standing member concerns about accessibility, environmental responsibility, and sustainability. For example, pandemic-born initiatives like SCMS+ offered intellectual community during lockdown and can now address members’ desires for year-round engagement. Similarly, the SCMS virtual pre-conference was a practical solution for an overly full virtual conference. Now in its third year, the pre-conference can help members build and sustain connections with SIGs, Caucuses, and more: new members have a low-stakes entry point to the main conference/community while returning members that may be unable to travel in a given year can sustain professional connections.

As we look to the future of SCMS, the Board aims to continue these and other initiatives, such as making SCMS governance more transparent, celebrating our intergenerational community, and building more global partnerships. While SCMS is contractually obligated to meet in person through 2026, the Board is exploring ways to blend the best of online and in-person events to best support our international membership of media scholars and practitioners.

I look forward to seeing and celebrating you all.

Wishing you a wonderful SCMS 2023,

priscilla peña ovalle

Welcome to the 64th SCMS Conference in Denver!

We had originally planned to meet in Denver in 2020. We subsequently had virtual conferences in 2021 and 2022. Following our online pre-conference in February, this year’s return to in-person SCMS has been designed to emphasize the best aspects of gathering together in shared space. While offering a full complement of panels, workshops and roundtables that engage the best traditions and newest perspectives across film and media studies, we are also assuring time within each day's schedule for restoration, social and mentoring activity, and celebration of our members and their accomplishments with programs and events that showcase our Denver location. We also welcome our valued exhibitors back to in-person conversations about and displays of the wonderful publications produced since we last met in person.

This year we received over 1000 proposals for pre-constituted panels, roundtables, workshops, and open call papers from a range of graduate students, independent scholars, and faculty of all ranks across diverse institution types and from around the world. A look at just the first set of panels on our first day of the program indicates the breadth of scholarship being presented-from studies of production histories and film festivals to analyses of comedy and true crime, to work on sound and music in media and indigenous identity. Notably, however, the diversity of the program still finds depth and unity in exemplifying the stated mission of SCMS, “grounded in the contemporary humanities tradition” of “excellence in scholarship and pedagogy that fosters critical inquiry into the global, national, and local circulation of cinema, television, and other related media” situating “these media in various contexts, including historical, theoretical, cultural, industrial, social, artistic, and psychological.”

It was my privilege to work with the 2023 Program Committee, which did the demanding yet rewarding work of reviewing all of our proposals this year. All thanks go to Mary Beltrán, Andrew Bottomley, Stephanie Brown, Pardis Dabashi, Anne Dymek, Cary Elza, Bärbel Goebel-Stolz, Bishnupriya Gosh, Michael Gott, Jennifer Hessler, Carly Kocurek, Derek Kompare, Peter Kunze, George Larkin, Alice Leppert, Yael Levy, Sara Liao, Chelsea McCracken, Darshana Sreedhar Mini, Erin Myers, Lori Morimoto, Haley O’Malley, Lucia Palmer, Wyatt Phillips, Jamie Rogers, Kristen Warner, and Benjamin Woo. Thanks also go to our current Board members for their additional time and energy given to the Program Committee: Courtney Brannon Donoghue, Jennifer Fuller, Frances Gateward, Alfred L. Martin Jr., Neil Verma, with further thanks to Paula Massood and Priscilla Ovalle.

The conference-its planning and execution-benefits most, however, from the indefatigable expertise, grace and good humor of SCMS’s Director of Conferences and Special Events, Leslie LeMond and Program Coordinator, Molly Youngblood. Leslie and Molly keep everything seamless, in spite of new Program chairs and committee members each year. I also thank scheduler TJ West for his expertise.

Whether this is your first SCMS or your 40th, we are excited to welcome each of you to the Mile High City and to the opportunity to once again gather together.

Become an Institutional Member

Institutional membership represents a significant engagement with current scholarship, theory, criticism, education, and practice in the study of cinema and media. Allow us to help you increase exposure and heighten awareness of your organization with our audience of highly motivated cinema and media faculty, undergraduate and graduate students, precollege teachers, postdocs, and professionals in media and film studies.

Why SCMS?

Our society comprises over 3,000 members, representing more than 500 institutions and 40 nations. We serve as a resource for scholars, teachers, administrators, and the public at large.

Benefits

Benefits Specific to Institutional Membership:

- Feature in the Programs/Schools area of the SCMS website and link to the program’s home page
- Unlimited job postings in the SCMS Career Center
- Listing in the conference program
- Invitation to Institutional Chair’s Meeting

Additional Benefits of SCMS Membership:

- Four issues of the Journal of Cinema and Media Studies (JCMS, formerly Cinema Journal) (Fall (No. 1), Winter (No. 2), Spring (No. 3) and Summer (No. 4) per membership year
- Access to members’ area of the SCMS website, News Brief, announcements and profile page
- Unlimited access to SCMS’ online Career Center, enabling departments and programs to post and view job applications and to identify cinema/media scholars looking for full and/or part-time employment.
• Networking opportunities offered via our virtual preconference, in-person conference, and the SCMS website
• Project Muse access to digital version of JCMS (and former issues of Cinema Journal)
• Discounted rates on books

Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and SCMS Fieldnotes Collaboration

SCMS would like to remind everyone about the Fieldnotes Committee 2020 announcement that may have been missed due to the global pandemic and canceled conference. SCMS is now in collaboration with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and its Oral History Projects (OHP) Department. With this donation to the Academy, OHP along with the Academy Film Archive as the archival repository, will steward the Fieldnotes collection and provide cataloging and preservation support. This collaboration represents a new era for the interview project, started in 2014 by Haidee Wasson to conduct, circulate, and archive interviews with forerunners in film and media studies.

The following scholars have been interviewed since 2020: Charles Wolfe interviewed by Patrice Petro; Mette Hjort interviewed by Missy Molly; Julia Lesage interviewed by Rox Samer; Jan Olsson interviewed by Joel Frykholm; Clyde Taylor interviewed by Moya Luckett; Barbara Klinger interviewed by Caetlin Benson-Allott; Henry Jenkins interviewed by Ritesh Mehta; Christine Gledhill interviewed by Martin Shingler; Chon A. Noriega interviewed by Stephen Charbonneau; Viola Shafik interviewed by Alisa Lebow; Tom Schatz interviewed by Jennifer Holt; Linda Mizejewski interviewed by Kathleen Rowe Karlyn; Kathleen Rowe Karlyn interviewed by Linda Mizejewski; Judith Mayne interviewed by Christina Lane; Steven Cohan, interviewed by Will Scheibel; Jan-Christopher Horak interviewed by Heather Hendershot; Janet Walker interviewed by E. Ann Kaplan; Virginia Wright Wexman interviewed by Kathleen McHugh; Pam Cook was recently interviewed by Catherine Grant; Jacqueline Bobo interviewed by Kathleen Rowe Karlyn; Noël Burch interviewed by Lucy Fischer; Robert P. Stam interviewed by Alessandra Raengo; Robert Allen interviewed by Richard Maltby; Christine Geraghty interviewed by Rachel Mosley; and Serge Toubiana interviewed by Kelley Conway.

This remarkable work was achieved during the pandemic and we are extremely grateful. Our thanks to all the interviewers and technical personnel who have assisted with these interviews.

SCMS would like to say special thanks to Haidee Wasson, Patrice Petro, Barb Klinger, Chris Holmlund, Raphael Raphael, Michael Zryd, Matthew Ogonoski, as well as our partners at the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and its Oral History Projects (OHP) Department.

Conference FAQs

How Are Panels Structured?
Panels typically feature 3–4 speakers giving a 20-minute paper. The chair may or may not be one of the speakers. Presenters may need to limit presentations to less than 20 minutes, especially if the panel also includes a formal respondent, or to accommodate more time for Q&A with the audience.

How Do Workshops Differ From Panels?
Workshops are interactive discussions led by one or two facilitators, who may speak for 5–10 minutes at the start. They are intended to be dialogic, interactive, and productive workspaces. Topics typically focus on pedagogy, research strategies, and methodologies but may also explore major intellectual issues or trends in the discipline. Workshops may include additional speakers but should emphasize participation by all session attendees involved together in sharing best practices, working on a text together, role-playing an interview, demonstrating a technique, or any other productive interaction.

How Do Roundtables Differ From Panels?
Roundtables have 4–6 programmed participants, including the chair. Participants do not read papers but make very brief opening remarks, of no more than five minutes each. Following these statements, roundtables open up discussion among the panelists, followed by open discussion with the audience.

About Virtual Participation in Conference
Although the Society is encouraged by recent innovations in virtual technology and appreciates the many contingencies that may prevent conference attendance, we plan the virtual preconference and in-person conference with active and present participation in mind. We do not accept pre-recorded conference presentations in either the pre-conference or in-person venues. Although the next few annual conferences are still planned as in-person events, we continue to discuss and consider accommodations for participants with an investment in inclusivity and using any of our available resources to assist members attending the conference to present in person. Beyond the pre-conference and in-person conference, we are also committed to supporting and to capitalizing upon the responsive, engaged year-round opportunities for scholarly and social exchange provided by our online forums and SCMS+ events. To ensure equity, it would be unfair to have registration mandatory for all members and yet allow some participants to pre-record their presentation, putting the onus of the presentation on the Panel Chair to play the recording.

As noted, the Society offers other options for virtual participation and exchange through programs like SCMS+. Although we know there is no immediate comprehensive solution to all of the matters we are trying to address—in terms of accessibility, inclusion, environmental responsibility, and fairness—we seek to continue to work and learn together.
2023 Audio Visual Policy

The following equipment will be standard in all session (panel/roundtable/workshop) rooms at the conference. AV equipment will not be provided in smaller, business meeting rooms.

- an LCD/multimedia data projector (with audio)
- HDMI Cable—if your laptop does not have a HDMI port, you will need to borrow/purchase an HDMI connector/adapter (dongle) that allows your laptop to connect to the projector
- Mini Audio Jack
- Power strip
- Wireless internet access wireless network: MarriottBonvoy_Conference access code:SCMS2023 (instructions re: logging on can be found on page 28)

Because the cost of equipping rooms with computers is prohibitively expensive, we must ask you to bring your own laptop if you plan to use projection. In addition to your own laptop, please be sure to bring your power cord and any proprietary cords required for your computer. Wireless internet access will be provided in the panel/workshop rooms and conference space. We will not be offering computers, DVD players, overhead projectors, slide projectors, CD players and/or additional audio components. If you have questions about AV or the Society’s audiovisual policy, please contact our Director of Conferences & Events.

Best Practices

Panels and workshops with multiple presentations using projection are encouraged to coordinate before their session time to have all presentations on a single computer or flash drive. Designate one person's laptop for use during the session; load all presentations onto the laptop before the session; and test the presentation to make sure they will work with the software on the designated laptop.

We cannot accommodate changes or requests for AV equipment onsite. SCMS is not responsible for the safety and security of attendee computers. Thank you for your cooperation.

Assistance with AV during the Conference

If your room’s equipment is malfunctioning or you are having difficulty, please contact an Encore technician—303-596-8189. You may call or text. State you would like an Encore technician to come to the room and tell them the issue you are experiencing. You may also call if you need an Encore technician to come speak with you if you have extensive questions to ask before your presentation.

SCMS Lounge/Recharge Area
with Computer/Printer Access

ROOM Plaza Foyer  •  CONCOURSE LEVEL, PLAZA BUILDING

Hang out in this area to network, hold informal meetings, charge your devices, or work on your computer/tablet.

Terms and conditions: you agree to use these computers at your own risk. They are public terminals and SCMS cannot be held responsible for results of usage.
SCMS Social Media

Follow us on Twitter (@SCMStudies) and Instagram (@scmstudies).

Use #SCMS23 to post about your experiences during the conference.

Find us on Facebook: facebook.com/SCMStudies.

Live Tweeting

The Twitter hashtag for the SCMS 2023 annual conference is #SCMS23. If you are presenting material that you wish not to be live tweeted, please say so explicitly at the beginning of your presentation. When live tweeting from sessions, we suggest using the session number provided in the program.

Guidelines for Recording Presentations

The papers and commentaries presented during this conference are intended solely for the hearing of those present and should not be tape-recorded, copied, or otherwise reproduced without advance written consent of the authors. Permission must be obtained prior to recording, not after the fact. Recording, copying, or reproducing a paper/presentation without the consent of the author(s) may be a violation of common law copyright and may result in legal difficulties for the person recording, copying, or reproducing. SCMS reserves the right to revoke registration of anyone who records sessions without appropriate permissions.

Exception Note: SCMS reserves the right to use images and recordings of the conference and those in attendance for educational and promotional purposes. Any individual’s registration, attendance, or participation at the conference constitutes that attendee’s agreement for SCMS to use their image in photographs, video, audio, and electronic communications.

Indigenous Membership

SCMS has a membership program for Native and Indigenous media scholars, which includes membership and conference registration waivers. Full details about this program can be found on our website. If you have questions about the Indigenous Membership program, benefits, or waivers, please contact the SCMS Home Office.
Universal Access

We embrace the goal of universal access and aspire to make inclusion a practical and intellectual priority at our meetings. SCMS asks those groups and organizations that coordinate meetings and receptions to do their due diligence and ensure that access considerations are met wherever they intend to host SCMS members.

If there are additional accommodations that will allow you to participate more fully in our annual conference, please reach out to meetings@scmsconference.com and let us know how we can better assist and support your experience of the SCMS annual conference.

Wellness

Nursing room—You are welcome to nurse wherever you feel comfortable feeding your child. If you are looking for a more private space, will have a room set aside for lactation and other essential personal needs. Please go to the registration desk to request the key and location. For hours when registration is closed or for other advanced requests, please email meetings@scmsconference.com to make arrangements with the SCMS staff.

Quiet room—During the conference, persons who desire a quiet place to prepare for a presentation may visit the SCMS Quiet Room (Savoy, Majestic Level, Tower Building).

Fitness Center—Located on the 5th Floor (Tower Building), the Sheraton fitness center features complimentary 24/7 key card access. The exercise room is equipped with state-of-the-art Life Fitness Signature Series equipment.

Heated Pool—Overnight guests enjoy complimentary access to the heated rooftop pool located on the fifth floor of the Tower Building. Hours of Operation, Daily 6:00 am – 11:00 pm.

Accessibility

The 2023 conference site is ADA compliant and wheelchair accessible. We recognize that this is a fundamental provision rather than a comprehensive solution and seek to work with and learn from advocates, scholars, and SCMS members with disabilities to raise concerns about and offer solutions to access and inclusion.

Tips for Making Your Hotel Reservation: when you book a room it is best to (1) call the hotel directly at (303) 893-3333 and “block” your accessible room for the desired dates, (2) have the hotel email you a confirmation noting the accessible room, and (3) call the hotel directly 24-48 hours in advance or your arrival to confirm your accessible room. When calling the nationwide reservations call center for many hotel chains, they do not have the ability to “block” wheelchair accessible rooms with individual hotel properties. We recommend calling the hotel directly, and speaking to the front desk to properly reserve and block your accessible guestroom.

If you require assistance to book your housing or if you have any problems/issues, please email hotel@scmsconference.com.

Motorized scooter and wheelchair needs: Mobility Plus (https://www.mobilitypluscolorado.com/) is a service offering rental equipment to attendees to help them navigate the annual meeting venues and beyond. Prices vary by model and needs, and attendees can call Mobility Plus for an individual quote. The company will deliver the equipment to your hotel.
The Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel is also committed to making their facilities, amenities, and services accessible to guests with disabilities. That commitment entails removing barriers and making reasonable modifications to their policies, practices, or procedures so as to give people with disabilities the same opportunities as other guests in the ways they access and benefit from the property's products and services.

All areas of the facility are wheelchair accessible. Electronic doors are located at the main lobby entrance. The main lobby has a marble floor, and there are no restrictive steps to enter the hotel. Restrooms in lobbies and on meeting room floors are ADA accessible, wheelchair accessible, and have tactile signage. Elevators connect all levels of the property, and each elevator has Braille numerals beside each control button. Valet parking and on site accessible self-parking is available. The hotel has an accessible fitness center, swimming pool and business center.

Guest Rooms—Mobility-accessible doors feature at least 32 inches of clear door width. There are 12 accessible rooms with king beds; five of these have roll-in bathrooms. There is an accessible route from the public entrance to accessible guest rooms. Accessible rooms also offer the following: adjustable height hand-held shower wand, bathroom vanity at an appropriate height, grab bars in the bathroom, toilet seat at wheelchair height, doors with lever handles, a lowered deadbolt, lowered electrical outlets, lowered night guards and peepholes on guest room doors, and no transfer showers are available. Hearing-accessible features include a visual fire alarm, portable communications kits containing visual alarms and notification devices, and TTY. TVs have closed captioning.

Meeting Rooms—All rooms and floors of the hotel are accessible.

Restaurants—There are restaurants on the street level and they are accessible.

Conference Events—All conference events at the Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel are fully accessible by elevator.

On-Site Accessibility Issues—If you are an attendee who has access needs, or you would like more information about the hotel's special services relating to a specific disability, please speak with a Guest Services Representative in the Lobby (either at hotel registration or the concierge desk).

Should you encounter an accessibility issue at SCMS 2023, please notify the hotel's front desk so they can assist you immediately. You may also report the problem by e-mail at hotel@scmsconference.com.

Guidelines for Presenters

(Adapted from North Carolina Office on Disability and Health in collaboration with The Center for Universal Design, “Removing Barriers: Planning Meetings That Are Accessible to All Participants”)

- Before answering any questions, repeat the question.
- Provide verbal descriptions of any overheads, slides, or charts, reading all text on the visual aids.
- Face the audience when speaking and keep hands or other objects away from the mouth.
- Refrain from speaking too quickly.
- Ensure all visual aids are printed in as large a font as possible and contain fewer than eight lines of text. Make large print hard copies of presentations available for persons with low vision.
- Present key points in multiple ways, including visual, auditory, and tactile approaches.
- Limit the number of visual aids and allow sufficient time to read each one.
- When possible, bring videos with captioning for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing.
- Encourage seated as well as standing activities.
- At the beginning of presentations, provide oral descriptions of meeting room layouts, emergency exits, amenities, and O/A procedures.
- If breaks are included, make sure that you allow adequate time for people with disabilities to reach the new locations and/or complete tasks.
- Make every effort to keep the meeting room free of extraneous noises.
Providing Readable Materials:

- It is good practice to routinely bring five copies of written handouts and make digital copies available. Also, a PowerPoint presentation printed with one slide per page qualifies as a large print handout. The following are steps you can take to make materials more readable for everyone.
- Use black ink on white or off-white paper to maximize contrast.
- Avoid using all caps.
- Make sure there is even spacing between letters.
- Make sure text is not printed over illustrations.

Inclusion

Pronouns—As part of SCMS’s commitment to diversity and inclusion, pronouns are included on your name badge.

All-Gender Restrooms—SCMS is committed to making the conference accessible and welcoming to our entire community. Gender-neutral restrooms are an important part of making the annual conference more inclusive. All-person, all-access restrooms are available at the Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel on the Concourse Level, Plaza Building (close to Plaza Ballrooms D & E) as well as on the Majestic Level, Tower Building. All-Gender Restrooms will be clearly marked with signs outside of the restroom entrances and are also designated on the maps on page 15 & 17. To find other safe restrooms in Denver, visit Refuge <refugerestrooms.org>.

Fragrance Free Conference Environment—In the interest of supporting our colleagues with sensitivity to alcohol and scent, we ask that attendees refrain from or limit their use of perfumes or fragrances. Perfumes and fragrances (including scented lotions) can negatively affect people with multiple chemical sensitive syndrome (MCS), asthma, and/or autoimmune disorders. For every 100 people in America, there is an average of 10 with asthma, 20 with an autoimmune disorder and/or 12.5 with MCS.

Dependent Care Subsidies—The Dependent Care Fund was established to offset the cost of conference-based dependent care expenses to graduate students and contingent faculty. These need-based subsidies provide assistance of up to $400 for the costs of dependent care at home or at the conference site. A committee established by the Board reviewed applications and allocated funds prior to the conference.

Family Friendly Conference—SCMS 2023 is family friendly and will include “children’s registration”—there will be a kids’ table on the Concourse Level, Plaza Building with art and craft supplies as well as some quiet toys (books, puzzles and so on). We will have blank badges for kids to make and decorate. The conference registration desk will also have a small “party favor” bag for children in attendance.

In addition, Denver is an excellent destination for families. Local parks, the Denver Zoo, the Denver Museum of Nature & Science, the Downtown Aquarium, the Denver Trolley, and the Denver Firefighters Museum are just a few of the activities for kids to enjoy. The world-class Denver Art Museum—free for those 18 and younger every day—is a great place to introduce kids to the wide and wonderful world of art. Every gallery on every floor of this expansive museum has something fun for families.

Finally, remember that you can connect with other parents with children via our childcare forum (http://bit.ly/37Ng7Yz). Through this forum, families can get to know each other and create connections that may be helpful for setting up conference play dates and shared childcare.
Conference Hotel Amenities

Thanks for staying at the Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel—If you booked a room at the conference hotel under the SCMS room block (online or by phone), your guest room rate includes complimentary Internet access.

Wireless Internet access—Standard in all meeting space at SCMS 2023. This includes the Exhibit Area (Plaza Ballroom A, B & C, Concourse Level, Plaza Building) and the SCMS Lounge/Recharge Area (Plaza Foyer, Concourse Level, Plaza Building). You can find the network and password on page 28 of this program. The hotel front desk will provide details about how to log onto the Internet in your guest room so that it is taken care of on your final bill.

Sustainability

The Sheraton Denver Downtown is TripAdvisor GreenLeaders Certified and a proud recipient of a “4 Green Keys” rating, the second highest achievable from Green Key Global’s Green Key Eco-Rating Program, a graduated rating system designed to recognize hotels, motels, and resorts committed to improving their environmental and fiscal performance. In addition, the city of Denver has paved the way in sustainable design. Named the No. 1 green meeting city in the United States by Greenbiz.com.

Once you have arrived at the conference, please consider these greening options:

Linen Services—Cancel daily hotel linen service whenever possible.

Cleaning Products—Use your own toiletry products (shampoo, soap, etc).

SCMS Soap Drive—SCMS will collect opened and unopened hotel soaps, shampoos, conditioners, and other toiletry items, used or unused, that people in need might find useful. Please take your donations to the Registration area and look for the soap drive bin.

Recycling—Utilize paperless check-in, check-out, and billing procedures. Use the many recycling cans around the hotel. Reduce your electricity and water use in rooms.

Name Badges and Conference Programs—Look for the bins in the Registration area to recycle your name badge and conference program.

Electric Vehicle Charging Station—To find a nearby place to plug in an electric car (EV), use PlugShare’s (plugshare.com) database of over 50,000 charging stations.

Effects of High Altitude

Denver is 5,280 feet above sea level, and we want to make sure all participants prepare to acclimate to the higher elevation to best enjoy this remarkable city and experience. (https://www.denver.org)

Arrive Early—If possible, we encourage you to arrive in Denver 12–24 hours before your first conference activity. Being at altitude for a number of hours before exerting yourself will allow your body to acclimate and you will feel better during the busy conference.

Drink Water—Drinking plenty of water is the number one way to help your body adjust easily to Denver’s higher altitude. The low humidity in Colorado keeps the air dry, like the desert, so you need twice as much water here as you would drink at home. In fact, prepare your body by hydrating before your trip to Denver, as well as during your visit.

Monitor Your Alcohol Intake—In Denver’s rarified air, golf balls go ten percent farther and so do cocktails. Alcoholic drinks pack more of a wallop than at sea level. It is recommended that you go easy on the alcohol in the mountains and in Denver, as its effects will feel stronger here.

Eat Foods High in Potassium—Foods such as broccoli, bananas, avocado, cantaloupe, celery, greens, bran, chocolate, granola, dates, dried fruit, potatoes and tomatoes will help you replenish electrolytes by balancing salt intake.

Watch Your Physical Activity—The effects of exercise are more intense here. If you normally run 10 miles a day at home, you might try 6 miles in Denver.

Pack for Sun—With less water vapor in the air at this altitude, the sky really is bluer in Colorado. But there’s also 25 percent less protection from the sun, so sunscreen is a must. Denver receives over 300 days of sunshine each year (more than San Diego or Miami). Bring sunglasses, sunscreen, and lip balm.

Dress in Layers—Two days before your trip to Denver, check the weather and use this information to pack appropriately. Because Denver is closer to the sun, it can feel much warmer than the actual temperature during the daytime, but then become very chilly after sundown. It is best to layer your clothing. Bring a rain poncho for potentially-brief pop-up afternoon storms.
SCMS Anti-Harassment Statement

As an association, the Society for Cinema and Media Studies is strongly committed to building and supporting a robust scholarly and educational community built on the tenets of diversity, equity, and the free and civil exchange of ideas with fundamental respect for the rights, dignity, and value of all persons (See SCMS Position Statement November 21, 2016). The values of respect, equity, and nondiscrimination should inform conduct whether in speech or act; whether in formal, informal or social settings; whether in-person or remotely.

At our national conference and throughout the year, SCMS is committed to providing an environment where all members, participants, and volunteers are treated with equal consideration in a harassment-free space. Certain behavior is specifically prohibited and will not be tolerated in person, in writing, or remotely, including: harassment or intimidation based on race, religion, language, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, disability, appearance, or other protected group status; sexual harassment or intimidation, including verbal harassment, unwelcome sexual attention, stalking (physical or virtual), sexual coercion, or unsolicited physical contact; the use of power or professional status to threaten, coerce, or harass someone, whether verbally or physically; or threatening behavior, whether verbal or physical. During the annual conference as well as any SCMS sponsored events, participants (whether members, presenters, staff, students, attendees, guests, vendors, contractors, exhibitors, volunteers, or media representatives) are expected to observe these rules and behaviors in all conference venues, meetings, special events, tours, receptions, hotel spaces, as well as online venues and social events on or off site involving members. Within the context of SCMS policy and the professional practices of scholarship, critical examination of beliefs and viewpoints does not, by itself, constitute hostile conduct or harassment. Similarly, the use of imagery or language in the context of a professional discussion might not constitute hostile conduct or harassment.

If you have experienced any unwelcome behavior or harassment, please contact any member of the Board of Directors, a member of Hotel Security, and/or a local police officer. Please report any physical assault or threats to the local police department.

Reporting an incident of harassment does not obligate the complainant to pursue any further action. Everyone will be treated fairly and with dignity and respect throughout the investigation process due to the enormous consequences an allegation of harassment can have for all parties involved. To the extent possible, the investigation will be handled confidentially and sensitively. All allegations will be documented by a designated member of the Board of Directors or SCMS Home Office and may, if warranted, be referred to local law enforcement. SCMS will handle matters that fall under a violation of these policies individually, in a manner deemed fit by the Board of Directors.

Code of Conduct

SCMS is committed to creating and maintaining a harassment-free environment for all participants in the society’s activities, regardless of their actual or perceived sex, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, race, ethnicity, nationality, ability, socioeconomic status, veteran status, age, or religion. All members and participants, including employers, contractors, vendors, volunteers and guests, are expected to engage in consensual and respectful behavior and to preserve SCMS’ standard of professionalism at all times.

Instructions
FOR PANEL AND WORKSHOP CHAIRS

1. Presentations should not exceed 90 minutes total, to ensure discussion time.

2. When one panelist goes over time, other panelists or workshop participants are deprived of a fair opportunity to present their research/comments.

3. Audience members are rightfully upset when there is no time to ask questions.

4. Technology problems cut into panel times. Please have panelists check their technology (DVDs, laptops, flash drives) in advance.

5. Please check that all visuals and audio are functional before your session begins.

6. All papers must be presented in person by the author. Zoom or other teleconference presentations are not allowed at SCMS conferences.

7. Chairs should give their panelists signals for 5 minutes left, 2 minutes left, and “please wrap up” at the 20-minute mark.

8. Chairs who are presenting papers should designate one of the panelists to time their paper when they are presenting.

9. Please end your session promptly to allow time for travel between panels and set-up for the next session.

SCMS Distinguished Career Achievement Award Event

A Conversation with Tom Schatz & Bill Nichols

ROOM Plaza Ballroom E & F • CONCOURSE LEVEL, PLAZA BUILDING

Patrice Petro • University of California, Santa Barbara • Moderator
Tom Schatz • The University of Texas at Austin • DCAA 2021 Winner
Bill Nichols • San Francisco State University • DCAA 2022 Winner

The Distinguished Career Achievement Award recognizes outstanding scholars, who have made significant contributions to the field through service, research, innovative teaching methods, and more over the course of their career. Join us for a conversation with Tom Schatz and Bill Nichols as we reflect upon their work and hear what they believe the future holds for cinema and media studies.

Patrice Petro is Professor of Film and Media Studies and Dick Wolf Director of the Carsey-Wolf Center and Presidential Chair in Media Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara. She is the author, editor, and co-editor of fourteen books, including Uncanny Histories in Film and Media Studies (2022), The Routledge Companion to Cinema and Gender (with Kristin Hole, Dijana Jelaca, and E. Ann Kaplan, 2017), After Capitalism: Horizons of Finance, Culture, and Citizenship (with Kennan Ferguson, 2016), Teaching Film (with Lucy Fischer) (2012), Idols of Modernity: Movie Stars of the 1920s (2010), Rethinking Global Security: Media, Popular Culture, and the “War on Terror” (with Andrew Martin 2006), and Aftershocks of the New: Feminism and Film History (2002). She served two terms as President of the Society for Cinema and Media Studies.

Bill Nichols is an American film critic and theoretician best known for his pioneering work as founder of the contemporary study of documentary film. His 1991 book, Representing Reality: Issues and Concepts in Documentary, applied modern film theory to the study of documentary film for the first time. It has been followed by scores of books by others and by additional books and essays by Nichols. The first volume of his two-volume anthology Movies and Methods (1976, 1985) helped to establish film studies as an academic discipline. Nichols is Professor Emeritus in the Cinema Department at San Francisco State University and Chair of the Documentary Film Institute advisory board. Nichols has lectured in numerous countries, served on film festival juries on different continents, consults regularly on a variety of filmmaking projects, and has published over 100 articles. He is former president of the Society for Cinema and Media Studies, a former advisor to the American Film Institute and has served as Department Chair in Canada and the United States. Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film describes his place within film studies as “the most significant documentary scholar in the world”. His early work shared with other film scholars a degree of difficulty as it tried to apply elaborate theories to popular films but, as with the field generally, the intensity of theoretical investigation diminishes in his later work as the emotional impact of specific works takes on greater importance. Not a film historian in the traditional sense, Nichols has offered fresh views of historical assumptions but his main contribution has been to offer a conceptual framework for the study and production of documentary film.
Tom Schatz is the Mary Gibbs Jones Centennial Chair Emeritus of the Department of Radio-Television-Film at The University of Texas at Austin, where he served on the faculty from 1976 to 2021, and was the Executive Director of the University of Texas Film Institute. He has written four books about Hollywood films and filmmaking, including Hollywood Genres: Formulas, Filmmaking, and the Studio System; The Genius of the System: Hollywood Filmmaking in the Studio Era; and Boom and Bust: American Cinema in the 1940s. Schatz edited the four-volume collection, Hollywood: Critical Concepts, and he also serves as series editor of the Film and Media Studies Series for the University of Texas Press. Schatz’s writing on film has appeared in numerous magazines, newspapers, and academic journals, including The New York Times, the Los Angeles Times, Premiere, The Nation, Film Comment, Film Quarterly, and Cineaste. Schatz lectures widely on American film and television in the U.S. and abroad, and he has delivered talks and conducted seminars for the Motion Picture Academy, the Directors Guild of America, the American Film Institute and the Los Angeles Film School. Schatz also is engaged in media production, has consulted and provided on-screen commentary for a number of film and television documentaries, and is co-producer of “The Territory,” a long-running regional PBS series that showcases independent film and video work. Schatz’s recent publications include an essay on “Band of Brothers” in The Essential HBO Reader (2008) and “The Studio System and Conglomerate Hollywood,” the lead essay in The Contemporary Hollywood Film Industry (2008). Current publishing projects include a study of contemporary Hollywood and a revised edition of Hollywood Genres. As Executive Director of the UT Film Institute, which he founded and launched in 2003, Schatz oversaw a program devoted to training students in narrative and digital filmmaking, and the actual production of feature-length independent films.

Punk Feminisms and Film
Screening and Q&A with Vivienne Dick and Rachel Garfield

LOCATION Tivoli Community Theater • 900 AURARIA PARKWAY, THE UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER

The University of Colorado Denver will be presenting a free, public “double-feature” of Vivienne Dick’s 1978 short _Guerrillere Talks_, starring iconic post-punk women musicians such as Lydia Lunch, Ikue Mori, and Pat Place. This will be followed by Dick’s recent documentary _New York Our Time_, which revisits several of these same women today, updating and fleshing out the portraits in the original. This screening will be followed by a formal Q&A between Dick and filmmaker/scholar Rachel Garfield, moderated by CU Denver art historian Maria Elena Buszek. Garfield’s recently-published book _Experimental Filmmaking and Punk: Feminist AudioVisual Culture in the 1970s and 1980s_ argues that artists like Dick utilized formal and narrative approaches that extended and critiqued earlier feminist creative practices, influencing generations of artists. Both Dick and Dr. Garfield emerged from the original punk scenes in the US and UK. Vivienne Dick is an Irish feminist experimental and documentary filmmaker whose earliest films helped define New York City’s No Wave cultural scene. Rachel Garfield is also a filmmaker of renown, whose work explores the formation of subjectivity in relation to race, class, gender, and disability. She is a Professor of Fine Art at the Royal College of Art in London. This event is free and open to the public, thanks to a generous grant from the University of Colorado President’s Fund for the Humanities, with additional support from the University of Colorado Denver, College of Arts and Media.

LEARN MORE! | GO.ROWAN.EDU/SCMS
UC Irvine’s Ph.D. program in Film and Media Studies trains students to develop original research in the histories and theories of film, television, video games, and digital media. We particularly seek students who are invested in exploring the relationships between media and their contexts, including issues of culture, identity, history, and power.

Located near Los Angeles, UCI allows access to the rich cultural offerings and institutions of Southern California. Students are admitted directly into the PhD program with multi-year funding packages.

Do you teach or study film? Would you like to access digital resources?

Screen Studies is a digital resource which takes users from script to screen, and beyond.

It offers searchable access to an online library of screenplays, critical and contextual eBooks on world cinema, TV studies, and film-making, and reference articles, from Bloomsbury, Faber & Faber, the British Film Institute, Auteur (LUP) and Focal Press to support studies of the moving image.

Ask your librarian to get in touch at www.screenstudies.com/contact-us to arrange a free trial.

‘Screen Studies has plenty to offer students, researchers, and practitioners and is a valuable resource for institutions that support cinema and film studies, screenwriting, and filmmaking’

- Library Journal, March 2021

Visit www.screenstudies.com for more information on free trials and how to access.
Building on its traditions of innovative graduate study in cinema and critical theory, UW-Milwaukee’s English Department offers a unique, interdisciplinary graduate program in Media, Cinema, and Digital Studies. The Master’s and Doctoral programs support study of film, television, games, digital culture, media activism, and popular culture.

Introducing Electronic Communities of Making a book series from Amherst College Press

Edited by Anastasia Salter and Stuart Moulthrop

Electronic Communities of Making promotes thoughtful reflection on the communities and practices driving electronic creativity by publishing works that reach across electronic literature, game studies, and internet research to explore the intersection of theory, practice, and pedagogy. We particularly hope to encourage engagement with open-source tools that invite and encourage inclusive making: from established platforms for interactive fiction, to alternative games platforms redefining play, to artistic communities shaping procedural expression.

The Department of Film and Media Studies is an interdisciplinary undergraduate program at the University of Oklahoma designed to offer students a comprehensive, dual-focused curriculum that combines the study of film and media history, theory, and criticism as well as the practices of film and digital media production. OU Film and Media Studies, in the OU College of Arts and Sciences, is proud to be the institutional home of the SCMS Office and staff.

Established in 1890, the University of Oklahoma is a doctoral degree-granting university and leader in research, healthcare, and academic activity impacting the state of Oklahoma and global community. The Norman campus enrolls more than 28,000 undergraduate and graduate students, the Health Sciences Center in Oklahoma City enrolls more than 3,000 students and the OU-Tulsa campus enrolls more than 1,000. With almost 4,700 students, the Class of 2026 is the largest, most diverse, and most academically qualified class in university history.

CALL FOR

Paper, Panel, Roundtable, Seminar, and Workshop Proposals

The Society for Cinema and Media Studies announces its call for proposals for the 2024 conference.

Please join us Thursday, March 14 – Sunday, March 17, 2024 at the Sheraton Boston Hotel.

One of the oldest cities in the United States, Boston is renowned as the heart of the American academy and thus as a vibrant center of critical thought and discourse. The city boasts many colleges and universities, including several with cinema and media studies programs, as well as a vibrant independent media community and a long history of public radio and television.

The Program Committee welcomes quality paper, panel, roundtable, seminar, and workshop proposals on any topic related to cinema and media studies. Seminars will take place during the 2024 preconference, which will be open to all members.

The deadline for proposals for open call papers as well as pre-constituted panels and workshops is Thursday, August 31, 2023 (5:00 pm CT). Please check the website and watch your inbox for updates.
