Letter from the President

Welcome to New Orleans and the fabulous Ritz-Carlton Hotel! On behalf of the Board of Directors, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to our members, professional staff, and volunteers who have put enormous time and energy into making this conference a reality.

This is my final conference as SCMS President, a position I have held for the past four years. Prior to my presidency, I served two years as President-Elect, and before that, three years as Treasurer. As I look forward to my new role as Past-President, I have begun to reflect on my near decade-long involvement with the administration of the Society. Needless to say, these years have been challenging, inspiring, and expansive. We have traveled to and met in numerous cities, including Atlanta, London, Minneapolis, Vancouver, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Los Angeles. We celebrated our 50th anniversary as a scholarly association. We planned but unfortunately were unable to hold our 2009 conference at Josai University in Tokyo. We mourned the untimely death of our colleague and President-Elect Anne Friedberg while honoring her distinguished contributions to our field. We planned, developed, and launched our new website and have undertaken an ambitious and wide-ranging strategic planning process so as to better position SCMS to serve its members and our discipline today and in the future.

At one of our first strategic planning sessions, Justin Wyatt, our gifted and hardworking consultant, asked me to explain to the Board why I had become involved with the work of the Society in the first place. The answer was simple. I wanted to be part of a larger intellectual community. I wanted to collaborate with scholars in my field. Unlike the kinds of discussions and interactions that take place at our home departments, serving on the Board of a scholarly association affords insights into the state of our field that are often not always apparent at our individual institutions. I wanted to be involved in helping to guide our organization as it internationalized its vision and expanded its mission beyond the study of film to embrace television, radio, digital technologies, and other media. Most of all, I wanted to be an active participant in helping to shape the field to which I have dedicated my entire professional career.

What I received in return has been invaluable. I have made life-long friendships with scholars whose work I have always admired. I have come to know younger scholars whose work is at the cutting-edge of our field. I have laughed a lot, cried a little, and learned so much from the discussions and debates at Board meetings and at our annual conferences. Whatever I have accomplished for the Society, I have done so through sustained and engaged collaboration with Board members, staff members, and committee volunteers. I want to thank everyone—former Presidents, Secretaries, Treasurers, Board members, and Editors of Cinema Journal; members of annual and standing committees, members and leaders of our Caucuses and Scholarly Interest Groups, and last, but certainly not least, our talented, hardworking, and dedicated professional staff. All of you have contributed so much to our organization over the years; you have also, and in ways that I had not anticipated, contributed to my own professional growth and sense of belonging as well.

In recognition of their exemplary service this past year, I would like to thank Treasurer Paula J. Massood and Information Technology Officer Andrew Miller; I would also like to thank and acknowledge the work of Cinema Journal editor Heather Hendershot, Secretary Mary Celeste Kearney, and Graduate Student Representative Kevin Sanson. I am especially grateful to President-Elect Chris Holmlund, Chair of the Program Committee, and Bruce Brasell, Conference Program Coordinator, for all of their labors in putting such a complex schedule into place. I would also like to acknowledge the work of the Program Committee itself, which included members of the Board of Directors as well as SCMS members who generously gave of their time and expertise: Bambi Haggins, Victoria Johnson, Diane Negra, Yeidy Rivero, Jacqueline Stewart, Mike Zryd, Tim Anderson, J.B. Capino, Kara Keeling, Derek Kompare, Neepa Majumdar, and Maria Pramaggiore. Special thanks go to the New Orleans Host Committee—Connie Balides, Janice Haynes, Jason Landrum, Vicki Mayer, Beretta Smith-Shomade, Frank Ukadike, Michelle White and, especially its Chair, Ana Lopez—for organizing the special events and the incredibly informative local guide that you will find inside this printed program. Finally, I would like to thank the Screening Committee—Robin Blaetz, Theresa Geller, Michelle Puetz, and its Chair, Beretta Smith-Shomade—for soliciting, selecting, and scheduling the many screenings that run concurrently with the panels and workshops. Needless to say, it takes the efforts and energies of many people to make our conference successful; without their dedication to our organization, this conference would not have been possible.

But it would not have been possible without the tireless efforts of our exceptional—and exceptionally hardworking—professional staff. Our administrative coordinator, Jane Dye, and our budget manager, Debbie Rush, have done an excellent job in preparing for this conference and in managing the myriad of details both on and off-site. Our website administrator Sarah Denton deserves special thanks for all of her work in helping to launch and further expand our website. Our conference manager, Leslie LeMond, has likewise done exemplary work on all aspects of the conference, from coordinating with exhibitors to providing information on hotels and travel arrangements to designing, along with Del LeMond, the program brochure that will be essential to you for the next few days.

Please make sure to attend the opening Awards Ceremony on Thursday evening, when we will honor the achievements of our members and recognize excellence in scholarship, teaching, and service across all areas of Cinema and Media Studies. This year, we will honor the recipients of our longstanding awards—the Katherine Singer Kovacs Book and Essay Awards, the Student Writing Award, the Dissertation Award, the Service Award, the Pedagogy Award, and the Distinguished Career Achievement Award. We will also honor the first winners of our new awards for scholarly excellence—the Anne Friedberg Award for Innovative Scholarship, the Best First Book Award, the Best Edited Collection Award, and the Best Essay in an Edited Collection Award.

At the Thursday evening ceremony, we are honored to present the Distinguished Career Achievement Award to Dudley Andrew, R. Selden Rose Professor of Film and Comparative Literature at Yale University. Throughout his career, Professor Andrew has made lasting and original contributions to film theory, film history, and film aesthetics while serving as mentor, teacher, and advisor to generations of scholars in our field. It is a genuine honor to present this most prestigious award to him, and to recognize his life-long commitment to both the critical study of cinema and to the discipline of film studies, which he has done so much to promote, expand, and enliven. We will also present our most prestigious award for outstanding teaching to Charles Wolfe, this year’s recipient of the SCMS Pedagogy Award, whose wise counsel and example has guided me and countless other scholars in our careers. As the Pedagogy Award committee recognized, Professor Wolfe’s career epitomizes excellence in all three areas identified for the Award—committed service, outstanding publications and development of instructional materials, and above all, distinguished and inspirational teaching. Finally, we will honor outstanding commitment to our Society by presenting Peter Decherney with the Service Award. With this award, we recognize his important work on Fair Use and expanding the exemptions to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to allow professors, students, documentary filmmakers, and anyone making noncommercial videos to bypass the copy protection on DVDs for educational purposes.

Please join me in welcoming our incoming President, Chris Holmlund, as well as our new President-Elect, Treasurer, and Board members, who are dedicated to furthering the important work of our organization. At the time of this writing, I do not know who will assume some of these new roles, as elections have not yet taken place. However, what I do know now is that we have an excellent slate of candidates in all categories, including Barb Klinger and Eric Schaefer for President-Elect, Jim Castonguay and Caryl Flinn for Treasurer, Sylvia Chong, Glenn Man, Angelo Restivo, and Pamela Wojcik for the Board of Directors, and Lindsay Garrison and Mabel Rosenheck for Graduate Representative. I would like to thank each of these colleagues for accepting their nomination and agreeing to run for these important offices. I would also like to extend my deepest gratitude to our outgoing officers and members of the Board, who have done such outstanding work for the Society: former President Stephen Prince, Treasurer Paula J. Massood, Board members Victoria Johnson and Mike Zryd, and Graduate Representative Kevin Sanson. It has been a genuine pleasure working with you, and I am forever in your debt for your service, your commitment, and your friendship over so many years.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me, or any member of the Board of Directors, at the conference, on our website, or when you return home, if you have any questions or would like to become more involved with the Society. If my own experience is any guide, such involvement will not only expand your intellectual horizons, but will also afford you the opportunity to work closely with some of the smartest, most engaged and accomplished people in our field. That is no small thing, and it has meant the world to me.

Once again, I wish you a wonderful and intellectually engaging conference!

Sincerely,

Patrice Petro
President, SCMS
Letter from the Program Chair

Dear SCMS Colleagues,

Welcome to New Orleans! Bienvenu-e-s a la Nouvelle Orleans! I hope that you have a wonderful time at the 51st Society for Cinema and Media Studies Conference and that you carry home with you intellectual nourishment and rewarding memories. Laissez les bons temps rouler!

In honor of the spirit and resilience of our host city our conference this year takes as organizing theme “Media Citizenship.” You will find that many sessions speak to how changes in all forms of media have affected equality, citizenship and survival, whether for individuals, communities or corporations. Equally, however, you will find that many sessions engage with other influential and/or emerging areas of cinema and media study, and that the screening program opens yet other windows onto media practice, past and present. The Conference Program Committee, Host Committee, Screening Committee and SCMS Board, staff, and consultants have worked tirelessly to ensure that this year’s conference will be satisfying, and fun. With it, we are mindful that we embark on what will hopefully be the next 50 years of our history.

Please join me in thanking the following individuals when you see them over the next few days for their help in making this conference happen. The Program Committee—SCMS members J. B. Capino, Derek Kompare, Maria Pramaggiore, Kara Keeling, Neepa Majumdar and Tim Anderson; SCMS Board members Vicky Johnson, Mike Zryd, Yeidy Rivero, Jacqueline Stewart, and Bambi Haggins—read and scored what were, once again, a record number of high quality proposals. My warm thanks to all. Kudos to the Host Committee—Ana Lopez (chair), Beretta Smith-Shomade, Connie Balides, N. Frank Ukadike, Vicki Mayer, Jason Landrum, Michelle White, and Janice Haynes—for compiling a guide to (several of) New Orleans’ world-renowned restaurants, for organizing off-site events, and for helping to plan on-site entertainment for what this year—at you the members’ request—will be two receptions. Special thanks also to the Screening Committee—Beretta Smith-Shomade (chair), Robin Blaetz, Theresa Geller, and Michelle Puetz—for their work judging the films and videos submitted for screening at the conference. Profound thanks to Andrew Miller and Paula J. Massood for their tireless work on the new website. Hats off to Bruce Brasell for the conference scheduling and to Sarah Denton and Shannon Atkins for helping us move from old to new websites. My thanks to Del LeMond for his work on the program, to Justin Wyatt for his help securing the historic Ritz-Carlton as our conference site, and to Patrice Petro and the rest of the Board for their support, always. Thanks, too, to the more than 30 volunteers chairing open call panels: we very much value your assistance! Finally: let’s hear it for Jane Dye, Debbie Rush, and Leslie LeMond for being such gracious “glue” and for keeping the organization, not just the conference, running! We ALL see and value your cheerfulness, your professionalism, and your hard work.

As always, those of us who have volunteered and been elected to serve on the Board welcome your input. We urge you to attend the annual Members Business Meeting on Friday at noon and invite you to attend one of the two Orientation for New Members, scheduled Thursday and Friday at 11 a.m., to share your suggestions, observations, and ideas. We welcome volunteers willing to help with next year’s conference or to serve on one of the SCMS’s Standing or Annual Committees. Participation in any of the seven Caucuses, the Graduate Student Organization, and/or the burgeoning number of Scholarly Interest Groups offers still other ways to learn about SCMS and make a difference. Of special note this year, surely, is that the Latino/a and Queer Caucuses are celebrating their twentieth anniversaries! Felicitaciónes! Congratulations!

On a personal note, it has been an honor to serve as chair of the Program Committee this year. I have learned a lot about the organization and its members, and have really enjoyed myself in the process. The position of chair offers a rare chance to witness the breadth and depth of academic investigations in cinema and media today. (The Program Chair does not rank proposals.) I’m happy to report that we continue to grow, and that in my view more and more panels and workshops are mixing media and/or crossing geographical boundaries.

many papers we could accept and, as usual also, decisions regarding acceptance were made strictly with an eye to equity and quality. I regret that we could not accommodate all of the quality proposals we received. We are working to ensure that next year more will be included.

Noteworthy this year is that we are providing wifi access in meeting rooms! We hope to be able to continue to do so, likely by raising registration fees. At present our membership and registration fees are far below those of comparable learned societies; as always, however, SCMS will do its best to accommodate members in lesser income brackets. As you might intuit, today’s SCMS confronts multiple opportunities and challenges, occasioned by our continued expansion and by the rapid shifts in technology that are impacting all our lives and fields of study on a daily basis. We on the Board look forward to working with you to target issues, address questions, design solutions, and craft strategies. We are committed to maintaining SCMS as an organization that is welcoming to all members—indeed, junior, mid-level and senior scholars, and graduate students, too.

Please don’t hesitate to be in touch with me, with others on the SCMS Board or with the Home Office if you have questions or suggestions. Needless, I hope, to say, offers of help and thanks are welcome as well.

Speaking for all the SCMS members and staff who have worked on this year’s conference, we hope you have a great time in New Orleans!

Warmly,

Chris Holmlund

AREA TRANSPORTATION
From Louis Armstrong International Airport:

Airport Shuttle
Shuttle service to and from downtown New Orleans hotels every day of the year (except from 2 am – 3:30 am), with vans departing approximately every 30 minutes. Purchase ticket(s) in person at the Airport Shuttle Ticket Desk, on the ground level across from baggage claim areas 3, 6, and 12, or make a reservation by calling 866-596-2699. $20 one-way, $38 round trip for adults and children 6 and older; children under 6 ride free: www.airportshuttleneworleans.com.

Taxis
A cab ride costs $33.00 from the airport to the Central Business District (CBD)/French Quarter for one person and $14.00 (per passenger) for three or more passengers. Pick-up is on the lower level, outside the baggage claim area. There may be an additional charge for extra baggage.

There are no cab stands in New Orleans and it is nearly impossible to flag a cab down in the street (unless you are by a major hotel where the bellmen can often help). If you need a cab it is best to call one of the local companies below. United Cab is the largest and most reliable.

- United Cabs Co.: 504-522-9771
- Checker-Yellow: 504-943-2411
- Coleman Cab Co.: 504-586-0222
- White Fleet Cab Co.: 504-822-3800
- Yellow-Checker Cabs: 504-525-3311

GETTING AROUND TOWN

Taxis: See Above

Streetcars:
There are three different lines: St. Charles (which takes you uptown), Canal Street (which goes north to City Park), and the Riverfront (from the French Quarter to the Convention Center along the river). One-way fares are $1.25 and can be paid with exact change when you board. One, 3, and 5-day unlimited ride passes are also available for $5, $12, and $20 respectively. For route information see www.norta.com.

Buses:
City bus lines can get you to most any part of town… if you are willing to walk and perhaps make a couple of transfers. Bus Route 11 on trendy Magazine Street is perhaps the most attractive. Fare is $1.25 one-way. There are 30 bus routes throughout New Orleans. See maps and schedules at http://www.norta.com/routes

GEOGRAPHY:

If you ask a local for directions, there will be no south, north, east or west! Locals navigate by the river and lake. So we go towards the lake, towards the river, uptown (which is upriver) or downtown (which is downriver). The lake (Lake Pontchartrain) is definitely north of us. The river (the Mississippi) curves, but is south of us for the most part. To head uptown usually means to go west. To head downtown usually means to go east.
LIFE’S NECESSITIES

Walgreen’s Drugstore
900 Canal St. Across the street from the hotel.
Open 7 am – midnight. Offers just about everything necessary to sustain life in a pinch, including soft drinks, water, and beer.

Rouse’s Supermarket
701 Royal St. About 6 blocks from the hotel.
Open 7 am – 1 am. Deceptively small from the outside, this is a full service supermarket with very reasonable prices and a well-stocked wine and liquor department.

Matassa’s Market
1001 Dauphine St. About 10 blocks from the hotel.
504-412-8700. Open 5:30 am – 9 am. A smaller, family-owned store with fewer selections than Rouse’s… but they deliver.

COFFEE SHOPS/BREAKFAST IN THE FRENCH QUARTER

All coffee shops serve light pastries/croissants throughout the day.

Annette’s
219 Dauphine St. (French Quarter, about two blocks from the hotel) 504-529-5741
A multitude of inexpensive breakfast specials (including your choice of either the Cajun omelets or the Creole omelets). They also serve burgers and Greek items at lunch time.

CC’s Coffee House
941 Royal St., 504-581-6996. Gourmet coffee chain from a local roaster. Excellent coffee.

Cafe Au Lait
307 Chartres St., 504-528-9933. A charming coffee house near galleries and restaurants, about 5 blocks from the hotel.

Café Beignet
(three locations, all serve full breakfast all day)
334 Royal St., 504-524-5530 (about 4 blocks from the hotel)
819 Decatur St., 504-524-8575
1031 Decatur St., 504-522-6868

Café du Monde
1039 Decatur St., 504-525-4544 The oldest and most revered coffeehouse in New Orleans serving only the traditional chicory-laced coffee, hot chocolate, and beignets. Open 24 hours for those late-night sugar rushes.

Croissant d’Or
617 Ursulines St., 504-524-4663. Parisian simplicity, elegance, and fabulous pastries on a quiet back street. About 14 blocks from the hotel, but worth the walk.

En Vie
1241 Decatur St., 504-524-3689. Polished brash and broad windows amid boutiques.

La Boucherie Coffee House
335 Chartres St. 504-581-6868. Very cheerful space and a great kitchen supplement the coffee experience.

Royal Blend
621 Royal St., 504-523-2716. An almost hidden courtyard and quiet refuge in the heart of the Quarter.

VooBrew Café
830 N. Rampart St., 504-324-6420. Coffee brewed with a dose of local voodoo lore. For the adventuresome.

Nota Bene: New Orleans is considered one of the top three food destinations in the world… and the most affordable dining site in the US. We take our food seriously and compiling this brief guide has not been easy. We encourage you to check the New Orleans official tourism site http://www.neworleansonline.com, the Zagat guide to New Orleans, http://www.zagat.com/neworleans, and the New Orleans board at Chow Hound, http://chowhound.chow.com/boards/9. Also, see the New Orleans food glossary at http://www.fodors.com/world/north-america/usa/louisiana/new-orleans/feature_30002.html. Also note that in New Orleans many hotels have extraordinary restaurants as well and that we have a number of celebrity chefs to follow: Emeril may be a bit passé, but John Besh is au courant… and you’ll find all his restaurants listed here.

The focus of this guide is on the more affordable eateries relatively close to the hotel. For upscale, we focused on places in the French Quarter/CBD/Marigny, but could not resist adding a handful of great restaurants in uptown (a short cab ride away). There are many more wonderful restaurants and bars in these and other areas to explore; there just wasn’t enough space to list them all. Do check the websites above.

Central Business District (CBD)/French Quarter/Faubourg Marigny  ♦  (Sort of) Walking distance from hotel

Casual (alphabetical)

Acme Oyster House $$ ¶
724 Iberville St., between Bourbon and Chartres Streets in the French Quarter 504-522-5973 www.acmeoyster.com  The most traditional place to eat local oysters (which are safe to eat, even more so in a month with an “R” in it); slurp them raw at the marble topped bar or get them fried on a po’boy or platter. No reservations. Sun-Thu 11 am-10 pm; Fri-Sat 11 am-11 pm.

Angeli $ ¶ u
1141 Decatur, in the French Quarter 504-566-0077
The huge windows are perfect for watching the parade of Decatur Street’s pierced, tattooed, and woozy nightlife while you nosh on pizza, burgers, or Middle Eastern appetizers. The kitchen stays open late on weekends. Open Mon-Thu, Sun 11:00-2:00 am; Fri-Sat 11:00-4:00 am.

Bennachin $ ¶
1212 Royal St. (French Quarter) 504-522-1230
One of the city’s few truly African restaurants. Beef stews are terrific and are served with rice or mashed yams, which you traditionally eat with your hands. Vegetarian options include black-eyed-pea fritters, and spicy sautéed spinach served with plantains and coconut rice. No liquor served, BYOB is OK. Cash only. Mon-Thur, 11:00- 9:00 pm. Fri-Sat, 11:00-10:00 pm. Sun, 11:00-9:00 pm.

Café Maspero $ ¶
601 Decatur (French Quarter, by the River) 504-523-6250 www.pierremasperosrestaurant.com
The low prices, big portions, and neighborhood camaraderie at the bar keep people coming back. Pastrami and corned beef are local favorites. There’s typically a line for lunch… skip it and sit at the bar. Open Mon-Thu, Sun 11:00 am-10:00 pm; Fri-Sat 11:00 am-11:00 pm.

Central Grocery Company $ ¶ ¶
923 Decatur St. (French Quarter, by the River) 504-523-1620  A classic Italian grocery store and the home of what many consider the best Muffaleta sandwich in town. Open Tue-Sat 9:00-5:00 pm.

Clover Grill ¶
900 Bourbon St., French Quarter 504-598-1010 www.clovergrill.com  As much a scene as a restaurant, this classic diner in the heart of the Quarter’s gay section serves up waffles, omelets, and hamburgers grilled under abandoned hubcaps to devoted locals and the post-disco set. Open 24 hours.
NEW ORLEANS

Cochon $$
930 Tchoupitoulas St. (CBD) 504-588-2123
www.cochonrestaurant.com
A native Louisianan from Acadiana, Chef Donald Link prepares classic and innovative Cajun dishes. Next-door is “Butcher,” which sells Chef Link’s pork products as well as light appetizers and sandwiches and wonderful wines by the glass. The setting is casual in both. Mon-Fri: 11:00-10:00 pm. Sat: 5:30-10:00 pm. Closed Sunday.

Coop’s Place $$
1109 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-525-9053
www.coopsplace.net
Since 1982, Coop’s Place has delighted locals and visitors alike with its cozy (scuzzy?) atmosphere and great food. Just steps from the French Market. Free wireless too. Open daily 11:00 am-2:00 am.

Crescent City Brew House $$
527 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-522-0571
www.crescentcitybrewhouse.com
Great selection of beers brewed on site. Features German inspired cuisine as well as Creole and Cajun food. One of the few places to eat/drink where you can have a view of the Mississippi. Open Mon-Fri, Noon-10:00 pm; Sat-Sun, 11:30 to 10:00 pm.

Drago’s $$
2 Poydras St. (CBD; in the Hilton Hotel, about 8 blocks from hotel) 504-584-3911
www.dragosrestaurant.com
The Cvitanovich family Drago’s restaurant in Metairie has been a fixture for 40 years and is famous for its charbroiled oysters and Southern Italian pasta recipes. This branch location in the Hilton hotel is just as good as the original. Mon-Sat, 11:00-10:00 pm. Closed Sun. No reservations.

Green Goddess $$
307 Exchange Place (French Quarter) 504-301-3347
www.green goddessnola.com
An absolutely funky and delightful small restaurant tucked away in an alley that serves some of the most creative dishes in town at lunch and dinner (note their odd hours, however) coupled with equally imaginative cocktails. No reservations. Open Mon &Wed 11:00-10:00 pm; Thu., Fri, Sun 11:00-11:00 pm; Sat 6:00-11:00 pm.

Gumbo Shop $$
630 St. Peter St. (French Quarter) 504-525-1486
www.gumboshop.com
Housed in a restored 1794 Creole cottage adjoined to a tiny garden patio, the Gumbo Shop offers a hit parade of traditional and contemporary Creole classics, the best of which is the gumbo. Lunch and dinner daily.

GW Fins $$$
808 Bienville St. (French Quarter) 504-581-3467
www.gwfins.com/nola
The focus here is on seafood, seafood, and more seafood, ranging from gumbos and bouillabaisse to every kind of fish available in the market. Dinner: 5:30-10:00 pm Sun thru Thu and 5:30-10:30 pm Fri & Sat.

La Peniche $$
1940 Dauphine St. (Faubourg Marigny, about 1.2 miles from the hotel) 504-943-1460.
A cult classic and a short stroll from the music clubs of Frenchmen Street, La Peniche is the post-party kitchen of choice among musicians and various hipsters. Pancakes, omelets, and burgers, along with local specialties like red beans and rice, are the standard fare. Closed Tue night-Thu morning.

Mimi’s $$
2601 Royal St., (Bywater., an OK walk from the Marigny/Frenchman Street bar scene, but you’ll probably want to cab back to the hotel (1.8 miles). 504-942-0690.
This hip, friendly bar serves up a delicious menu of hot and cold tapas. Nosh on a cheese and olive plate or serrano ham and chorizo plate until 2 am on weekdays and 4 am on weekends while listening to great music.

Mother’s Restaurant $$
401 Poydras Street at the corner of Tchoupitoulas St. (CBD, about 10 blocks from hotel) 504-523-9656
www.mothersrestaurant.net
Great hole-in-the-wall restaurant famous for its po’boys sandwiches. More appropriate for lunch than dinner. Be prepared for a line at peak times. 6:30 am-10:00 pm Mon-Sat; 7:00 am-10:00 pm Sun.

Napoleon House $$
500 Chartres St. (French Quarter) 504-524-9752
www.napoleonhouse.com
A unique café and bar, with possibly the best ambiance (and the best Pimm’s Cup) in New Orleans. They serve food 11:30 am to 5:30 pm. Open Mon-Sat, 11:30 – 6:00 pm The bar stays open until midnight on Fri and Sat.
Palace Café $$$
605 Canal St. (French Quarter, less than two blocks from the hotel) 504-523-1661 www.palacecafe.com
Located in a lovely New Orleans landmark – the old Weirlein’s musical instrument store – this is a big bustling Brennan family restaurant that serves very good classic and contemporary Creole food. Their “small plates, cocktails and wine for $5.00” special (Mon.-Fri. 5-7 pm at the bar or sidewalk café is a great deal. Lunch Mon.-Sat., 11:30-2:30 pm. Sunday Brunch, 10:30-2:30 pm. Dinner Nightly, 5:30-10:00 pm. Bar Service continuous (limited menu between 2:30-5:30 pm).

Port of Call $
838 Esplanade Avenue (French Quarter, on the edge of the Faubourg Marigny) 504-523-0120 www.portofcallneworleans.com
Cool bar and restaurant with a great juke box. Arguably the best hamburgers in the city. Expect to wait at least thirty minutes for a table at peak times. Open weekdays, 11 am – midnight (with the possibility of last seating at 11:30 pm); Friday and Saturday, 11 am – 1 am (with the possibility of last seating at 12:30 am). Please be aware that this restaurant’s hours are not set in stone.

Red Fish Grill $$$
115 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-598-1200 www.redfishgrill.com A brash, bustling place that always seems to be crowded, this is another popular Brennan family restaurant. Seafood is, of course, the centerpiece of the menu including a wide variety of Gulf fish (the Pecan Gulf Fish is spectacular). Lunch Daily: 11:00-3:00 pm. Dinner: Mon. – Thurs., Sun., 5:00-10:00 pm. Oyster Bar, Mon.-Thurs., Sun., 11:00-10:00 pm. Dinner & Oyster Bar (Fri. & Sat.) 5:00-11:00 pm.

Rémoulade $
309 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-523-0377 www.remoulade.com Run by the owners of the posh Arnaud’s, Rémoulade is more laid-back and less pricey. It serves the same Caesar salad and pecan pie, as well as a few of the signature starters. Open daily, 11:00 am-midnight.

Rio Mar $$
800 S. Peters St. (CBD/Warehouse District) 504-525-3474 www.riomarseafood.com One of the best tapas-style places in town, featuring primarily seafood. It’s all tapas at lunch, when you tick off your selections on a small menu card. Lunch: Mon-Fri, 11:30-2:00 pm. Dinner: Mon-Sat, 6-10:00 pm.

Stanley $
547 St. Ann St. (French Quarter) 504-587-0093 stanleyrestaurant.com Located right on Jackson Square this all-day dining establishment is run by Chef Scott Boswell (Stella!) and offers a delightful breakfast, brunch and sandwich menu, including homemade traditional sodas. Open 7 am to 10 pm.

UPSCALE
The following are more elegant and typically more expensive restaurants where jackets will not be out of place. Reservations are highly recommended.

a Mano $$$
870 Tchoupitoulas St. (CBD/Warehouse District) 504-208-9280 www.amanonola.com
Featuring house-cured salumi, hand-crafted pastas, and long-simmered dishes, this warm and welcoming trattoria is a recent addition to the New Orleans food scene and has already been named among the top ten new restaurants of 2010. Lunch: Fri. 11:30-2:30 pm. Dinner: Mon.-Sat., 6:00-10:00 pm.

August $$$$
301 Tchoupitoulas St. (CBD, just a couple of blocks upriver from Canal Street, about 7 blocks from the hotel) 504-299-9777 www.restaurantaugust.com
John Besh’s flagship restaurant rarely disappoints and most frequently amazes. The setting is simply glorious, with shimmering chandeliers and rich fabrics, but the service is not at all stuffy. The $20 special 3-course lunch menu from 11-2 pm. Monday-Friday is a real deal (Call to check on availability). Dinner Nightly: 5-10:00 pm.
Antoine’s $$$$
713 St. Louis St. (French Quarter) 504-581-4422
www.antoines.com
One of the great, classic New Orleans restaurants (in business since 1840) with a cadre of faithful regulars and colorful history. Oysters Rockefeller were invented here. A jacket is preferred. Sunday Jazz Brunch 11:00-2:00 pm; Lunch 11:30-2:00 pm. Monday thru Saturday; Dinner 5:30-9:30 pm Monday thru Saturday.

Arnaud’s $$$
813 Rue Bienville (French Quarter) 504-523-5433
www.arnauds.com
One of the grand dames of New Orleans cuisine, serving classic Creole food in a beautifully restored turn of the century dining room just steps off Bourbon Street. Open from 6 pm, 7 nights a week.

Bacco $$$
310 Chartres St. (French Quarter) 504-522-02426
www.bacco.com
This Brennan family restaurant features Italian food infused with regional influences. The homemade pastas are terrific. Lunch: Daily; 11:30-2:30 pm Dinner: Sunday – Thursday: 6:00-9:30 pm / Friday & Saturday: 6:00-10 pm.

Bayona $$$
430 Dauphine St. (French Quarter) 504-525-4455
www.bayona.com
Chef Susan Spicer’s “New World” cuisine never fails to delight. Set in an elegant Creole cottage (if the weather permits ask for a table in the romantic courtyard), this jewel of a restaurant serves imaginative Louisiana inspired cuisine. Lunch: Wednesday-Saturday from 11:30 am. Dinner: Monday-Saturday from 6 pm. Closed on Sundays.

Bombay Club and Martini Bistro $$$
830 Conti St. (French Quarter) 504-586-0972
www.thebombayclub.com
Located in the elegant Prince Conti Hotel, the Bombay Club offers the most refined food you’ll find in the French Quarter after 10 pm. Seating until 10:00 pm on weekdays, 11:00 pm on weekends.

Brennan’s $$$
417 Royal St. (French Quarter) 504-525-9711
www.brennansneworleans.com
Famous for its lavish breakfasts, Brennan’s also does a fine job with classic Creole cuisine. Bananas Foster was invented in this beautiful 19th century building. Monday – Friday 9:00-1:00 pm, Dinner 6:00-9:00 pm. Saturday & Sunday 9:00-2:00 pm, Dinner 6:00-9:00 pm.

Brennan’s $$$
322 Magazine St. (CBD, about 7 blocks from the hotel) 504-587-9001
www.restaurantcuvee.com
Located in a beautiful complex of rooms with exposed brick walls, Cuvée features a contemporary Creole-Continental menu, with regional ingredients that reflect the influences of France and Spain on Louisiana food. Lunch: Monday and Friday 11:30-1:30 pm. Dinner: Monday-Thursday 6:00-9:30 pm; Friday-Saturday 6-10:30 pm.

Dickie Brennan’s Steakhouse $$$
716 Iberville (French Quarter) 504-522-2467
www.dickiebrennansteakhouse.com
Clubby and luxurious, many consider this the best traditional steakhouse in town. Dinner Nightly, 5:30-10:00 pm; Lunch: Friday only, 11:30-2:30 pm.

Domenica $$
123 Baronne St. (CBD, only three blocks from the hotel) 504-648-6020
www.domenicarestaurant.com
Recently opened in the newly restored Roosevelt Hotel, Domenica offers a type of Italian rustic regional food that is rarely seen here. This is yet another wonderful John Besh establishment. Open daily, 11:00-11:00 pm.

Galatoire’s $$
209 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-525-2021
www.galatoires.com
Another grand dame of old New Orleans. Excellent (but not stuffy) service, accompanied by impeccable Creole food. Beware the (quite possibly inebriated) locals at lunchtime on Fridays. Jackets required for gentlemen. Reservations accepted for upstairs dining room only. Locals line up to see and be seen in the downstairs dining room. Dining Room Open: Sunday, Noon-10:00 pm; Tue.-Sat. 11:30-10:00 pm. Bar: Sun. 11:30 am-til; Tue.- Sat. 11:00 am-til 10:00 pm.

Herbsaint $$
701 St. Charles Ave. (CBD) 504-524-4114
www.herbsaint.com
Only a short walk (about 9 blocks) from Canal St., Herbsaint offers upscale food at moderate prices. Helmed by Chef Donald Link, the food is inventive, robust and flavorful. Lunch: Mon-Fri 11:30-1:30 pm. Bistro: 1:30-5:30 pm. Dinner: Mon-Sat 5:30-10:00 pm. Closed Sunday.
Lüke $$$
333 St. Charles Ave. (CBD, right before Poydras St., about 5 blocks from the hotel) 504-378-2840 www.lukeneworleans.com A John Besh restaurant, inside the Hilton St. Charles Hotel, this is a fabulous old-style brasserie with inventive food that never fails to please. The seafood is always fabulous; the French fries served in a cone are out of this world. Open daily, 7:00 am to 11:00 pm.

Muriel’s Jackson Square $$$
801 Chartres St. (French Quarter, right on Jackson Square) 504-568-1885 www.muriels.com
Muriel’s is easily the most ambitious, in both atmosphere and menu, of the many restaurants around Jackson Square. The menu is diverse: from the seafood and andouille-sausage-stuffed mirliton to the pecan-crusted puppy drum with Louisiana crab relish. Lunch: Mon.-Sat., 11:30-2:30 pm. Sunday Jazz Brunch: 11:00 pm. Dinner: Mon.-Fri. 5:30-10 pm; Sat.-Sun. 5:00-10 pm.

Stella! $$$$
1032 Chartres St. (French Quarter, near Ursulines) 504-587-0091 www.restaurantstella.com
Considered among the most upscale of New Orleans restaurants, Stella! offers an eclectic “world cuisine” menu influenced by Louisiana traditions. Dinner only: 5:30-10:30 pm.

Uptown/Garden District Restaurants

You will have to take a cab to these, but they are worth the splurge. Again these are but a handful of the dozens of extraordinary restaurants uptown… Do call for reservations.

Brigtsen’s $$$
723 Dante St. (Uptown) 504-861-7610 www.brigtsens.com Chef Frank Brigtsen’s dishes represent some of the best south Louisiana cooking anywhere. Everything is fresh and deeply flavored. For dessert, the bread pudding is worth every calorie. Dinner: Tue.-Sat. 5:30-10:00 pm.

Clancy’s $$$
6100 Annunciation Street (Uptown) 504-895-1111 Beloved by locals, Clancy’s is elegant and understated. Its menu features imaginative treatments of New Orleans favorites. Lunch: Tue.-Fri., 11:00-2:00 pm. Dinner, Mon.-Sun. 5:30-10:30 pm.

Commander’s Palace $$$$$
1403 Washington Ave. (Garden District) 504-899-8221 www.commanderspalace.com
The most famous of New Orleans’ restaurants, and for good reason. It is well-worth a getaway from downtown, especially if you can wrangle a table in the upstairs Garden Room. The menu includes classics like sugarcane-grilled pork tenderloin, turtle soup (a must have), and fabulous seared Gulf fish. Don’t forget to order the bread-pudding soufflé. Weekend brunches are a New Orleans tradition. Weekday lunches are a bargain, especially given that martinis are 25 cents…. Casual business attire, jackets are preferred at dinner. Lunch: Mon.-Fri, 11:30-2:00 pm. Dinner: Mon.-Sun., 6:30-10:00 pm. Jazz Brunch: Sat., 11:30-1:00 pm, Sun. 10:30-1:30 pm.

Jacques-Imo’s Café $$
8324 Oak Street (Uptown) 504-861-0887 www.jacquesimoscafe.com The innovative food at Jacques-Imo’s is well worth the inevitable wait (reservations are taken only for groups of five or more) in the crowded (but very lively and friendly) bar. Dinner only: Mon.-Thur., 6-10:00 pm; Fri.-Sat., 5:30-10:30 pm.
NEW ORLEANS

The Upperline $$$
1413 Upperline St. (Uptown) 504-891-9822
www.upperline.com Another local favorite, this beautiful restaurant housed in an old shotgun structure serves fantastic classic and contemporary Creole dishes such as fried green tomato with shrimp remoulade, cane river country shrimp, and roast duck with garlic port sauce. Dinner only: Wed.-Sun., 5:30-10:00 pm.

Bars/Music:

Check the bar guide at http://www.nola.com/bar-guide, the extensive listings in The Gambit (local weekly) http://www.bestofneworleans.com and Offbeat magazine http://www.offbeat.com for current music offerings. This is just a very short (and idiosyncratic) list of some on NOLA’s classic bars and music venues. You can’t go far in New Orleans without running into a bar or music… It’s a good idea to just walk through Bourbon Street over to Frenchman Street right on the other side of Esplanade avenues (the edge of the Quarter). That is the best bar/ music scene in town right now.

Bacchanal
600 Poland Ave. (Bywater, take a cab) 504-948-9111
Treme has filmed at this 9th Ward wine bar with daily live music. Cheese plates and international cuisine are on the menu when Chef Joaquin Rodas cooks Tuesday-Saturday. Great courtyard.

Balcony Music Club
1331 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-599-7770
Located right where the Frenchmen Street scene begins, this music hall houses everything from brass bands to salsa ensembles to rock ‘n’ roll on its main stage and patio every night of the week.

Bar Tonique
820 N. Rampart St., 504-324-6045; www.bartonique.com This low-key lounge spins inventive cocktails in a dark, intimate setting tucked into the Quarter’s edge.

Blue Nile
532 Frenchmen St. 504-948-2583 Ritzy blue and gold decor sets the mood for this music club located in an 1832 building, reportedly the first constructed on Frenchmen Street. The club offers a full bar and live national and international bands perform in venues upstairs and down.

Cafe Lafitte In Exile
901 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-522-8397
Claiming to be the oldest gay bar in the United States, Lafitte in Exile features the best video bar in the Quarter and is a favorite meeting place. Upstairs is a chic and sleek game room with pinball machines, pool tables and Internet access.

618 Frenchmen St., 504-942-3731; www.drinkgoodstuff.com
Excellent draft and bottled beer selection and premium liquor choices. This is the best Frenchmen Street go-cup destination.

Carousel Piano Bar & Lounge (Monteleone Hotel)
214 Royal St., 504-523-3341; www.hotelmonteleone.com
Downtown socialites and happy hour revelers are always ready to go for a spin at the magnificent Carousel Bar. Yes, it does revolve.

Cosimo’s
1201 Burgundy St. (French Quarter) 504-522-9715
Tucked away in a residential corner of the French Quarter in a Creole cottage, Cosimo’s is a spacious neighborhood bar where you can drink like the locals do.

Howlin’Wolf
907 Peters St. (French Quarter) 504-522-9653
A mural by local artist Michalopoulos covers Howlin’ Wolf’s exterior and tells a tale of New Orleans music. Inside, top local acts and touring bands play in a spacious room lined by facades salvaged from old shotgun houses.
House of Blues
225 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-310-4999
Designed to feel like a Delta juke joint, this club features local, national and international bands and a gospel brunch on Sunday. Bands play in the main venue downstairs and The Parish, a smaller room upstairs, with bars open only when music plays. Other times, you can drink in the restaurant or the courtyard and explore the 268 pieces of folk art hanging on the walls. Open daily.

Lafitte’s Blacksmith Shop
941 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-522-9397
Atmospheric piano bar in an 18th century corner cottage that is frequented by locals and tourists alike.

Oz
800 Bourbon St. (French Quarter) 504-593-9491
This spacious dance club has a demographic skewed to young gay men, but also draws a good sized straight crowd, largely because of the scarcity of good dance floors in the French Quarter. Open 24/7.

Palm Court Jazz Cafe
1204 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-525-0200
Good for traditional jazz.

Pravda
1113 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-581-1110
Soviet kitsch and a selection of absinthe combine to give this comfortable Lower Decatur watering hole unique appeal.

Rubyfruit Jungle
1135 Decatur St. (French Quarter) 504-373-5431
Landmark lesbian bar in a new, three-story location that caters to a lesbian and mixed crowd, with two dance floors, spiral staircases, and a balcony over Decatur Street.

Sazerac Bar
123 Baronne St. (CBD, only 3 blocks from hotel) 504-648-1200
One of the most famous bars in Louisiana, located in the newly renovated Roosevelt Hotel, the Sazerac has been open since 1893. It was Huey P. Long’s favorite hangout and continues to serve the best Sazerac and Ramos Gin Fizzes cocktails.

Snug Harbor
628 Frenchmen St. (Faubourg Marigny) 504-949-0696 www.snugjazz.com
Contemporary Jazz; shows are usually at 9 and 11 pm.

Sweet Lorraine’s
1931 St. Claude Ave. (take a cab), 504-945-9654; www.sweetloraines.com
The 7th Ward jazz club caters to music lovers and sophisticated drinkers with a touch of Creole elegance. Great happy hour, live music later.

The Spotted Cat
623 Frenchmen St. (Faubourg Marigny) 504-943-3887
Jazz, funk, and blues bands perform nearly every night, with early-afternoon sets weekends, at this rustic club right in the thick of the Frenchmen scene.

Tipitina’s
501 Napoleon Ave. (Uptown) 504-899-4206
The classic contemporary music venue.

Tommy’s Wine Bar
752 Tchoupitoulas St. (CBD) 504-525-4790; www.tommysneworleans.com
Spacious and refined after dinner hang-out. Features a deep wine list, many wines are available by the glass.

Vaughan’s Lounge
800 Lesseps St. (Bywater; take a cab), 504-947-5562
Further immortalized by HBO’s Treme, Vaughan’s Lounge has always been a super-casual neighborhood spot kept on radar by Kermit Ruffins’ not-to-be missed Thursday night jazz jams and barbecuing.

Yuki Izakaya
525 Frenchmen St. (Faubourg Marigny) 504 943-1122
New Orleans’s only Japanese-style tavern offers a taste of its homeland, with red and black decor, Japanese movie posters and Japanese films screened on the back walls some nights. There also are DJs and live music. Sake and shochu are the favored libations, and there are ginger beer and coconut-lemongrass sake. Japanese tapas are available and there is outside seating.

Entergy IMAX® Theatre
1 Canal St. (French Quarter) 504-861-2537
www.auduboninstitute.org/imax.html
The wonders of nature are magnified at Entergy IMAX® Theatre, where larger-than-life adventures explode with the help of the world’s most advanced motion picture technology. Located next door to Audubon Aquarium of the Americas, it is one of only six in the world with its spectacular flat screen, single projection, IMAX® 3D and high-definition capabilities.

Prytania Theatre
5339 Prytania St. (Uptown) 504-891-2787
The city’s last single-screen movie house, hidden in an Uptown residential area. It shows first-run mainstream films and the occasional independent feature.

The Theatres at Canal Place
333 Canal St. 3rd Floor (French Quarter) www.thetheatres.com
The Theatres at Canal Place were recently renovated from the ground up to incorporate “dining” into the all-digital film experience. Chef Adolfo Garcia’s Gusto, a café and bar at The Theatres at Canal Place, features small plate meals and snacks that can be brought into the theatre and enjoyed in spacious black-leather chairs.

Zeitgeist Multidisciplinary Arts Center
1618 Oretha C Haley Blvd. (Central City, take a cab) 504-352-1150
http://zeitgeisttheater.wordpress.com
The Zeitgeist has been bringing alternative art to New Orleans since November 1986 and operates without any paid staff or public funds. It presents film, video, performance art, visual art and literary events six nights a week, year-round and is considered one of the premiere alternative arts center in the South. It is also the main venue of “Patois: New Orleans International Human Rights Film Festival” and the “New Orleans Middle East Film Festival.”

Other Arts

See http://artsneworleans.org for current listings of all art events taking place in the city. You can also find a listing of art galleries, which are mostly located in the French Quarter, along Royal and Chartres streets, in the Warehouse District, and along Magazine street.

Mahalia Jackson Theater of the Performing Arts
801 N. Rampart St., in Armstrong Park (Tremé) 504-218-0149
A Post-Katrina $27 million renovation has returned the lights to this famous stage. Now equipped with a 21st-century sound system, a digital cinema screen, enhanced lighting, a new orchestra shell, and a cutting-edge ballet floor, the 2,100-seat theater plays hostess to the Louisiana Philharmonic Symphony, the New Orleans Opera Association, the New Orleans Ballet Association, the New Orleans Jazz Orchestra, Broadway shows, and much more.

Le Chat Noir
715 St. Charles Ave. (CBD, next door to Herbsaint restaurant) 504-581-5812 www.cabarettechatnoir.com
A state-of-the-art performance space, where the night’s entertainment might be a touring torch singer, a comedy revue, a campy movie spoof, or Varla Jean Merman, the gender-bending chanteuse and frequent Chat Noir guest. An elegant and eclectic venue with an urbane audience.

Le Petit Théâtre
616 St. Peter St. (French Quarter) 504-522-2081 www.lepetittheatre.com The oldest continuously running community theater in the United States occupies a historic building in the French Quarter and puts on quality plays year-round.

www.newcombartgallery.com Nestled among the live oaks of Tulane University’s uptown campus, the Newcomb Art Gallery is a small gem of a museum that encourages visitors to learn about the art of different times, places, and peoples through a diverse array of exhibitions and programming.

The National World War II Museum
945 Magazine St. (Warehouse District) 504-527-6012 www.nationalww2museum.org A must-see for history lovers, it has been designated by the U.S. Congress as the country’s official World War II Museum. Powerful images and extraordinary artifacts bring to life the American Spirit, the courage, teamwork and sacrifice of the young men and women who won the war and changed the world. From the 1930s prelude to war, to the Normandy Invasion and the battles of the Pacific Islands, visitors trace America’s role in the war and on the Home Front. If you need to have lunch, stop by John Besh’s The American Sector cafeteria inside the museum.

Old Ursuline Convent
1100 Chartres St. (French Quarter) 504-529-3040
Ursuline Convent is the oldest building in the Mississippi River Valley. Completed in 1752, it is also the oldest surviving example of the French colonial period in the United States. Often referred to as the Archbishop Antoine Blanc Memorial Complex, the Old Ursuline Convent also houses the rich Archdiocesan archives. The building is known as the “treasure of the archdiocese.”
SHOPPING

New Orleans is great for boutique shopping. There are countless wonderful stores selling antiques, cool art, new and vintage clothing and one-of-a-kind jewelry. The main shopping corridors are Royal and Chartres streets in the French Quarter, Frenchman Street in the Marigny, and all along Magazine street, especially from Jackson Avenue all the way uptown to Henry Clay Avenue. If you have the time, get a day bus pass and get on and off the Magazine bus as cute boutiques and/or antique stores catch your attention. For upscale shopping, nothing beats the mall at Canal Place, anchored by Saks Fifth Avenue. Nearby is Rubensteins, (102 St. Charles Ave.) a glorious haberdashery and Meyer The Hatter (120 St. Charles Ave.), the South’s largest hat store. Either at Canal Place or at the main store at 3801 Magazine St., don’t neglect to admire and maybe acquire some of Mignon Faget’s exquisite (and relatively affordable) jewelry pieces inspired by New Orleans architecture and nature. Last but not least, Saturday and Sunday are the days to catch the French Market – a combination of produce, tourist stuff (t-shirts etc), and remarkable art and vintage collections – and the artists working and selling their wares around Jackson Square.
INSTRUCTIONS
FOR PANEL AND WORKSHOP CHAIRS

1. Please keep panel presentations to 20 minutes and workshop presentations to no more than 10 minutes.

2. When one panelist goes over time, other panelists or workshop participants are deprived of a fair opportunity to present their research.

3. Audience members are rightfully upset when there is no time to ask questions.

4. Papers should be no longer than 7-8 double-spaced pages for a 20-minute talk, and fewer pages if there are clips. If your panelists have more than this, ask them to cut down in advance.

5. We are finding that technology problems are cutting into panel time. Please have the panelists check their tech (DVDs, laptops) in advance.

6. Please check that all visuals function before your session begins.

7. Chairs should give their panelists signals for 5 minutes left, 2 minutes left, and “please wrap up” at the 20-minute mark.

8. Chairs who are presenting papers should designate one of the panelists to time their paper when they are presenting.

9. Please end your panel or workshop promptly at 15 minutes before the hour to allow participants and audience members enough time to get to the next panel.
TO ALL SCMS MEMBERS
YOU’RE INVITED!

Please plan to attend the upcoming meetings and events, which are open to all SCMS Members.

THURSDAY MARCH 10 • 11:00AM & FRIDAY MARCH 11 • 11:00AM

Orientation for New Members: If you are new to SCMS, please plan to attend one of the two Orientation for New Members sessions on Thursday, March 10 at 11:00am and on Friday, March 11 at 11:00am in the French Quarter Bar on Level Three.
You will learn more about the Society, the conference, the journal, and other benefits of membership.

THURSDAY EVENING
Please be sure to attend the Awards Ceremony on Thursday evening, in the Grand Ballroom, Level Two (Salons II & III), where we will honor excellence in scholarship, teaching, and service; the Awards Ceremony will be followed by our all members Opening Reception in the Gallery Foyer, Level One.

FRIDAY MARCH 11 • NOON
The annual Members’ Business Meeting will take place on Friday, March 11 at noon in Audubon, Level One. All SCMS members are encouraged to attend this meeting to learn more about our organization, our current strategic planning process, and our new website. Members will also meet the officers and Board members, the newly elected officers and Board members, and the leadership of our Caucuses and Scholarly Interest Groups.

SATURDAY EVENING
We have organized an all members Closing Reception on Saturday evening, replete with a cash bar, to be held in the Grand Ballroom, Level Two.
At this final evening event, we will honor the service of SCMS members in 2010-2011. Catch up with old friends and meet new ones at our first ever closing reception.

CONTINUOUS SCREENING

Minimals
Denise Iris, USA, 2005, 52 min

Minimals are micro films (around 1 min. each) that explore the beauty, humor, and depth of meaning in the apparently mundane details of everyday life. Ranging in tone from lyrical to playful, they are based on the idea that our daily lives are an inexhaustible source of wonder if we only pay attention. Simple observations, musings, or chance encounters are distilled down to their essence into audiovisual haikus. Created entirely with consumer-grade tools, they represent a deliberate attempt to establish a daily film practice that does not rely on the cumbersome apparatus of traditional film production.

“During World War II, hundreds of French-speaking Cajun men from South Louisiana enlisted in the U.S. military. Their linguistic skills and French heritage had been denigrated for decades in South Louisiana and was ridiculed as well by American officers in the processing centers at Camp Shelby, Mississippi, and Fort Polk, Louisiana. This documentary film, through memoirs and interviews of French-speaking Cajuns who served in WWII either as members of the OSS or as citizen soldiers, tells the story of this important aspect of the American war effort in Europe. Additionally, cultural scholars provide insight into the stories of these veterans from both an historic and linguistic perspective. The end result is a film that acknowledges the unique and important contributions of the French-speaking Cajun soldiers to the war effort and gives long overdue credit to them and their linguistic skills and French heritage.” (from film’s official website).

Orgasm Inc.: The Strange Science of Female Pleasure

Liz Canner, 2009, USA, 78 min

Filmmaker Liz Canner takes a job editing erotic videos for a drug trial for a pharmaceutical company. Her employer is developing what they hope will be the first Viagra drug for women that wins FDA approval to treat a new disease: Female Sexual Dysfunction (FSD). Liz gains permission to film the company for her own documentary. Initially, she plans to create a movie about science and pleasure but she soon begins to suspect that her employer, along with a cadre of other medical companies, might be trying to take advantage of women (and potentially endanger their health) in pursuit of billion dollar profits. Orgasm Inc. is a powerful look inside the medical industry and the marketing campaigns that are literally and figuratively reshaping our everyday lives around health, illness, desire and orgasm.

The House of Sweet Magic, The Films of Helen Hill

Helen Hill, USA, 1995-2004, 56 min

SPONSOR Media Archives Committee

Filmmaker Helen Hill was murdered tragically in her adopted home of New Orleans in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. The House of Sweet Magic is a compilation of Helen Hill’s surviving short films that have been restored and archived at the Harvard Film Archive. The screening celebrates Helen’s short but stunning career in animation using techniques such as three-dimensional stop motion, cel animation, puppetry, drawing and scratching on film, hand processing and hand tinting.

Hill, originally from South Carolina, studied at Harvard and California Institute of the Arts before moving to Canada with her husband Paul. While in Nova Scotia, Hill taught film animation at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design and at the Atlantic Filmmakers Cooperative. Hill also worked as a storyboard artist with the National Film Board of Canada. In New Orleans, Hill taught animation through the New Orleans Video Access Centre (NOVAC) and the New Orleans Film Collective, which she co-founded with other members of the local film community. Hill’s commitment to animation and teaching influenced many aspiring filmmakers and her films continue to screen in animation festivals worldwide.

Circles of Confusion

Phoebe Tooke, USA, 2008, 10 min

“Circles of Confusion is a meditative experimental documentary about loss in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. The filmmaker parallels her experience upon returning to New Orleans with the experience of filmmaker Stevenson Palfi, who committed suicide in the months after the hurricane.” (from the filmmaker’s website)

Audiences for these films may be interested in session D9 “Women Making Movies.”

Hurricane Katrina: Gaming Catastrophe for TV Ratings
Holland Wilde, USA, 2005, 26 min

Filmmaker Holland Wilde will be present for questions and answers

On 29 August 2005, all major U.S. TV networks were poised to cover what was potentially to be the most devastating natural disaster to ever hit the United States. No network could afford (literally) to miss this unique opportunity. As the mounting storm’s increasing size was trumpeted throughout the lead-up hours, embedded TV reporters and crew were dispatched to every corner of harm’s way to provide up-close-and-personal video of this “killer” category-five storm. This was TV’s moment to shine with firsthand pictures of nature’s “awesome cruelty”. Instead, newscasters aired a malfeasance of equal proportion. In this ethnographic compilation we see representational excerpts from the first five hours of news coverage of Katrina’s landfall. As devastation swept across the Gulf coast, news networks concentrated their efforts on broadcasting titillating, sensational video, while necessary information about immediate survival tactics, options for localized assistance, routines for medical emergencies, and pre-planning for a methodical recovery in the eventual aftermath were ignored.

Spilling Communication: British Petroleum News Praxis
Holland Wilde, Canada, 2010, 17 min

Two days before the 40th Anniversary of Earth Day, British Petroleum’s Deepwater Horizon oil drilling rig exploded 40 miles off the coast of Louisiana. Yet it took several weeks for the disaster to “catch on” with the American public. Why? Television coverage, still the “fattest informational pipe” into most U.S. homes, had few sensational images to offer viewers. Few new pictures equal little new news. After one month, BP finally acquiesced to governmental pressure and provided the first mile-deep images of their gushing oil head – setting off a barrage of 24/7, sensation-ally ill-informed, media praxis.

In this compilation of ethnographic surrealism we see representational news excerpts from but a brief two-week period: 20 May – 6 June 2010. As a form of civic “mediaturgy,” appropriation and remix of common news coverage offers unique opportunities to formulate, test and extend media theory.
Infiltrating Hollywood: The Rise and Fall of The Spook Who Sat by the Door
Christine Acham and Clifford Ward, USA, 2010, 57 min

SPONSOR African/African American Caucus

Filmmaker Christine Acham will be present for questions and answers

Released in 1973 during the height of the Black Power Movement and the Blaxploitation film era, the film The Spook Who Sat by the Door disappeared from theaters. Movie exhibitors and producers revealed that federal (FBI) and local policing agencies demanded that distributor United Artists pull the film from screens, or they literally removed the film from theaters. Copies of the film were destroyed. Upon realizing the fate of the film, director Ivan Dixon and screenwriter Sam Greenlee, hid a copy of the negative in a film vault, registering it under a false name. It was this copy that was used to prepare the film for DVD release in 2004.

Through interviews with author Sam Greenlee, Berlie Dixon, widow of director Ivan Dixon, Academy Award winning editor Michael Kahn, several actors from the film, Melvin Van Peebles, scholars Ed Guerrero, Todd Boyd and Eric Pierson; archival footage and production documents, Infiltrating Hollywood tells the story of The Spook Who Sat by the Door from its inception as a novel to its release and repression.

Audiences for these films may be interested in session C15 “Visualizing New Orleans” and B3 “Historicizing Blackness.”

My Own Private Hollywood: The Films of Cyrus Pinkham
Cyrus Pinkham, USA, 1937-1939, 120 min

SPONSOR Nontheatrical Scholarly Interest Group

Films introduced by Northeast Historic Film curator Gemma Perretta.

Cyrus Pinkham was an aspiring actor who never rose above the level of Hollywood extra, but his continued engagement with the film industry is in evidence throughout his amateur films, donated posthumously to Northeast Historic Film by his partner, William Waters. Between 1937 and 1939, Pinkham produced 18 short, silent, 16mm films of great artistic value; from home movies to short dramas and amateur documentaries. Pinkham’s ability to effectively communicate real and fictional stories is accentuated by a poignant sense of distance as an outsider of all his worlds from Maine to California. Skillful use of match-on-action, dynamic camera movement, shot/reverse shot, and close ups throughout his films indicate a strong understanding of visual language unique in amateur film. Hollywood editing techniques usually valued for their invisibility become arresting and dynamic in these amateur films. Educated and influenced by the film industry, Pinkham repeatedly and self-consciously plays with the notions of the quotidian and the extraordinary. The screening will include a selection of his best.

Audiences for this film may be interested in session J20 “Alternative Film Histories: Hollywood and the Amateur Revisited” where this filmmaker and his films will be explicitly discussed.

Supermen of Malegaon
Faiza Ahmad Khan, India, 2008, 50 min

Over one hundred miles outside of Mumbai in the textile factory town of Malegaon, director Nasir has thrilled the local public with his homemade spoof films. In their most ambitious project to date, Nasir and his hard working group of actors, writers, and crew set out to shoot “Superman of Malegaon,” a story about a hero sent down the river to save the town.

Documentary filmmaker Faiza Ahmad Khan chronicles Nasir’s hilarious attempts to overcome a myriad of unseen challenges from dropping his camera in the water to his lead actor getting married. Through it all, Nasir and his team use their creativity to forge ahead.

Copacabana
Martín Rejtman, Argentina, 2007, 56 min

Every year in mid October, the Bolivian community in Buenos Aires celebrates its most important Patronal festivity: the festivity of Nuestra Señora de Copacabana. Groups from all over the country, some even arriving from Bolivia, get together in the Buenos Aires neighborhood of Charrúa for a big parade, in a celebration that transcends religion. Combining modesty and fascination, Rejtman tells a story that, without being entirely a happy one, contains an infinity of marvelous moments—ones deserving being filmed.

Curated by Jaimie Baron

Whether you call it collage, compilation, found footage, detournement, or recycled cinema, the incorporation of previously shot materials into new artworks is a practice that has generated novel juxtapositions of elements that produce new meanings and ideas that may not have been intended by the original makers – that are, in other words “inappropriate.” This act of appropriation may produce revelation that leads viewers to reconsider the relationship between past and present, here and there, intention and subversion. The past decade has seen the emergence of a wealth of new sources for audiovisual materials that can be appropriated and repurposed in such a way as to give them new meanings and resonances. The Festival of (In)appropriation is a yearly showcase of contemporary short audiovisual works that appropriate film or video footage and repurpose it in “inappropriate” and inventive ways.

SPECIAL EVENT

NO/LA LOCAL ARCHIVES AND LOCAL CULTURE

30 minute screening will follow

This special panel event features New Orleans and Louisiana “archive workers.” They will discuss the significance of local film and media archive collections for film and television histories and the importance of local culture for early television and contemporary filmmaking. Mark Cave, curator of manuscripts and oral historian at the Historic New Orleans Collection (HNOC), will draw on the Fred W. Todd Tennessee Williams Collection, which includes correspondence between Williams and Warner Brothers as well as Vivian Leigh’s photographic albums from A Streetcar Named Desire, to discuss films adapted from Williams’ plays. John T. Magill, curator and historian at HNOC, will assess the various representations of New Orleans in films ranging from the early 1950s with Panic in the Streets and A Streetcar Named Desire to more recent films such as Easy Rider and The Big Easy. His work on filmed New Orleans addresses architectural preservation initiatives and draws on photographic records including the Vieux Carré Survey and the Charles L. Frank Collection, early postcards, and editorial newspaper cartoons. Florence M. Jumonville, Chair of the Louisiana and Special Collections Department at the Earl K. Long Library, University of New Orleans, will analyze the early years of WDSU-TV (Channel 6), which began broadcasting in 1948, and the station’s role as “citizen” of New Orleans contributing to the city’s life and culture. During this period, WDSU-TV engaged with local rhythms, interests, sentiments, and ideologies and developed a relationship with its viewers characterized by accessibility and proximity based on regional knowledge. Charles E. Richard, who is the Joseph P. Montiel/BORSF Endowed Professor in the Department of English and Director of the Moving Image Arts Program at University of Louisiana at Lafayette, will describe the work of The Cinematic Arts Workshop based at the university. This workshop is largely dedicated to documenting the local Cajun and Creole culture of the Acadiana region and it brings together students and scholars from disciplines as diverse as folklore and architecture, music and women’s studies, literature and public relations. Workshop films have been featured at many film festivals and have been broadcast on Louisiana’s PBS affiliate and the Documentary Channel.

Following the panel there will be 30 minute screening of two workshop films, namely, I Always Do My Collars First (Allison Bohl and Conni Castille, 2007) and Beausoleil: Louisiana’s Solar Home (C.E. Richard, 2009). An exhibition, “Drawn to Life: Al Hirschfeld and the Theater of Tennessee Williams,” will be held at the Williams Research Center of the HNOC during the conference.

PROJECTING PERFORMANCE (PART II)
by Luis Recoder and Sandra Gibson

Screening and discussion that expands Recoder's and Gibson's presentation “Projecting Projection Part I” on panel B7, “Projection, Performance, Experimental Film: Recent Developments.” Building complex processes out of seemingly elemental components, the filmmakers ask viewers to experience not only the nuances of projected light, but also what they call “the soft and fragile emulsion of time.” Gibson and Recoder have exhibited at the Whitney Museum of American Art, The Kitchen, Redcat, Sundance Film Festival, Institute of Contemporary Art (London), Tate Modern (London), and International Film Festival Rotterdam.

MEET & GREET

to introduce the American Film Institute’s Catalog Academic Network program with Robert S. Birchard, AFI Catalog Editor

The AFI Catalog (http://www.afi.com/members/catalog/) is the most authoritative filmographic database of American feature films on the web, including extensive entries on nearly 60,000 American feature-length and 17,000 short films produced from 1893-2010. Each completed AFI Catalog film entry offers an unmatched level of detailed information on cast, crew, plot summaries, subjects, genres, and historical notes.

AFI is teaming with academics at leading universities to offer an opportunity for students to become part of the AFI Catalog Academic Network and learn AFI’s research methodology and to apply it to the creation of new records for American feature films distributed between 1975 and 1993. Under the supervision of the AFI Catalog editorial staff, students will view a selected film, review an AFI-provided research packet, conduct additional research, and write the Summary, Note, and Subject Headings fields. Completed entries will be published on the AFI Catalog of Feature films on-line and students will receive by-lines for their written entries, and credit will also be given to the academic advisors and participating institutions.

Refreshments will be served.

Nothing but a Man

Michael Roemer, USA, 1964, 95 min

SPONSOR African/African American Caucus

A landmark independent film, Nothing but a Man is the first dramatic story featuring a largely black cast created for an integrated audience (the work of black filmmakers such as Oscar Micheaux was intended for audiences who patronized black-only theaters). White filmmakers Michael Roemer and Robert M. Young traveled through the South in 1962 in search of ideas for a fiction feature set during the growing turbulence of the civil rights era. Their story, based in Alabama but shot in southern New Jersey, is only tangentially related to the movement toward equality. Duff, an itinerant black railroad laborer (Ivan Dixon), romances and marries Josie, a small-town preacher’s daughter (Abbey Lincoln). Duff insists on being treated with respect, but his stance is personal rather than political. After he settles down in the town with Josie, he comes up against white bosses who want to make sure he knows his place and black men such as Josie’s father who don’t want to rock the boat for fear of losing what little advantage they have. Duff’s relationship with his own father (Julius Harris), a broken-down drunk living in Birmingham, teaches him valuable lessons about dignity and self-worth. The film was lauded at both the New York and Venice festivals but received limited release in theaters specializing in foreign and independent film. However, word of mouth in the black community, (where Nothing but a Man was for years a staple on the 16 mm rental market, ensured in the days before VCRs), and continued attention by film historians position Nothing but a Man as a pioneering and enduring work.

El General
Natalia Almada, USA, 2009, 83 min

Past and present collide in this documentary when filmmaker Natalia Almada, (winner of the Sundance Film Festival's U.S. Directing Award for documentary), brings to life audio recordings she inherited from her grandmother. These recordings feature Alicia Calles’ reminiscences about her own father—Natalia’s great-grandfather—General Plutarco Elías Calles, a revolutionary general who became president of Mexico in 1924. In his time, Calles was called “El Bolshevique” and “El Jefe Máximo” or “the foremost chief.” Today, he remains one of Mexico’s most controversial figures, illustrating both the idealism and injustices of the country’s history.

Through Alicia’s voice, this visually stunning, stylistically innovative film moves between the conflicting memories of a daughter grappling with her remembrances of her father and his violent public legacy. It draws exceptional strength from meticulously edited audio, haunting photographs, archival newsreels, and old Hollywood films, combined with an original soundtrack, sweeping footage of modern-day Mexico City, and interviews with today’s working poor. El General is a poetic and cinematic exploration of historical judgment, and a complex, arresting portrait of a family and country living under the shadows of the past.

Return to Bolivia

Mariano Raffo, Argentina, 2008, 90 min

Return to Bolivia is an auteur documentary film that tells the story of a Bolivian family in Buenos Aires that plan to travel to Bolivia after eight years of being away. They are looking for a new employee to help them at work. The documentary is filmed in a vérité style, and it gives a personal account of the subject of immigration, allowing the characters to lead the story. The narrative is based on universal values using a clear style that brings the story very close to fiction. (Taken from film’s website.)

Karmen Gei

Joseph Gaï Ramaka, Senegal, 2001, 86 min

Sponsor: African/African American Caucus and Francophone Scholarly Interest Group

The story of tempestuous Carmen, first told in a short story by Prosper Mérimée and made famous in an opera by Georges Bizet, gets a new and striking modern-dress adaptation in this provocative drama with music. Karmen Gei (Jeinaba Diop Gai) is an inmate in a women’s prison in Senegal; lusty, impulsive, and looking out for herself at all times, Karmen’s uninhibited dancing and sensual demeanor excites the Sapphic passions of Angélique (Stéphanie Biddle), the prison’s warden, who allows herself to be seduced by the wanton Karmen. Once Angélique falls asleep, Karmen sees the coast is clear and escapes to town where she is caught by military policeman Col. Lamine Diop (Magaye Adama Niang) after insulting factotums of the nation’s military leadership. However, Diop proves no match for Karmen’s seductive charms and after having her way with him, she once again escapes. Diop finds himself behind bars. Karmen arranges for Diop’s escape, but it isn’t long before he realizes she is using him as a plaything and has little respect for him as a man. However, by this time, he’s too deeply addicted to Karmen’s passions to turn away. While inspired in part by Bizet’s opera, Karmen Gei boasts an all-new score by David Murray, Julien Jouga, and Doudou Ndiaye Rose that draws on elements of pop, jazz, and Afro-pop for its original themes.

Audiences for this film may be interested in workshop C8 “The Films of Joseph Gaï Ramaka.”

Howl

Rob Epstein, Jeffrey Epstein, USA, 2010, 90 min

It's San Francisco in 1957, and an American masterpiece is put on trial. Howl, the film, recounts this dark moment using three interwoven threads: the tumultuous life events that led a young Allen Ginsberg to find his true voice as an artist, society’s reaction (the obscenity trial), and mind-expanding animation that echoes the startling originality of the poem itself. All three coalesce in a genre-bending hybrid that brilliantly captures a pivotal moment, the birth of a counterculture.

World-Wide-Walks / between earth & water / Rivers
Peter d’Agostino and others, USA, 2010, 60 min

Filmmaker Peter d’Agostino will be present for questions and answers

This video program will include a preview screening of a new experimental multi-media installation, World-Wide-Walks / between earth & water / Rivers drawing parallels with the Mississippi river system and other regions in the world: the Delaware and Sacramento in the U.S. and the Nile River Delta in Egypt. Scenes from Robert Flaherty’s Louisiana Story (1948) are incorporated and updated in a series of short videos and web movies revisiting Flaherty’s Louisiana Story (2006). These works examine both the legacy of Flaherty’s 1948 film and the experience of student filmmakers in southern Louisiana. Depictions of the oil industry and the local environment are explored.

Scene 32
Shambhavi Kaul, India/USA, 2009, 5 min

Scene 32 maps the terrain that lies between a given place and the objects that represent it. The salt fields of Central Kutch, in India, are examined through High Definition video and hand processed Hi contrast 16mm film to become another thing altogether: neither a specific location in India nor its representation, but a rebuilt world of precipices and gullies, untouchable textures and unfathomable scale. Nature becomes an inhospitable territory of longing while the work of art presents itself as a medium for connection.

Place for Landing
Shambhavi Kaul, USA, 2010, 6 min

A landscape all of mirrors where great shadows pass over the patchwork below. The camera shifts its focus. A child appears, disappears, a duck moves in. The surveying mirror either implodes or explodes into space. Its mottled hallway glass both indicates and becomes a Place For Landing. After a series of clever misdirections by the mirror, a fragment of song in this unsettling bedtime story redeems all. “That lovely moon/This round earth Aliens are made of diamonds/Earthlings are made of pearls.”

Word Works
Betsy Weiss, USA, 2004, 3 min

Filmmaker Betsy Weiss will be present for questions and answers

Word Works is a collaboration between New Orleans poet Mona Lisa Saloy and filmmaker Betsy Weiss. This short piece is a visual interpretation of Saloy’s poem of the same name, created for the New Orleans Video Access Center series, “Poets in the Dream State.” Combining observational footage with dramatized sequences and the poet’s words, Word Works evokes the essence of life in New Orleans.

Audiences for these films may be interested in session L22 “Aesthetic Legacies in Experimental Film and Media.”

Faubourg Treme: The Untold Story of Black New Orleans
Dawn Logsdon, USA, 2008, 68 min
SPONSOR Television and New Media Scholarly Interest Group

Lolis Eric Elie, a New Orleans newspaperman, takes us on a tour of the city—his city—in what becomes a reflection on the relevance of history folded into a love letter to the storied New Orleans neighborhood, Faubourg Treme. Arguably the oldest black neighborhood in America and the birthplace of jazz, Faubourg Treme was home to the largest community of free black people in the Deep South during slavery and a hotbed of political ferment. Here, black and white, free and enslaved, rich and poor cohabitated, collaborated, and clashed to create America's first Civil Rights movement and a unique American culture.

While the Treme district was damaged when the levees broke, this is not another Katrina documentary. Long before the flood, two native New Orleanians—one black, one white—writer Lolis Eric Elie and filmmaker Dawn Logsdon, began documenting the rich living culture of this historic district. Miraculously, their tapes survived the disaster unscathed. Elie and Logsdon make clear the city’s present, up through Katrina, remains steeped in its past—one that, for New Orleans, naturally includes an emphasis on music, heightened here by Derrick Hodge's original jazz score and over a hundred years of New Orleans music. This is a film of ideas, a historical film, a personal film, and a celebration of place.

Culture of Worry
Betsy Weiss, USA, 2004, 8 min

Shot in New Orleans and Washington, Culture of Worry is a personal collage essay about the way in which growing up in an atmosphere of anxiety can influence one's sense of identity. This piece considers various factors, such as illness, growing up in a Jewish household, and motherhood. Interview fragments, stock footage, cinéma vérité images and other visuals are set against a layered soundtrack to explore the ways in which human beings worry and how we strive to transcend such an anxiety-ridden state.

The Codes of Gender: Identity and Performance in Pop Culture
Sut Jhally, USA, 2009, 73 min

The Codes of Gender applies the late sociologist Erving Goffman’s groundbreaking analysis of advertising to the contemporary commercial landscape, showing how one of American popular culture’s most influential forms communicates normative ideas about masculinity and femininity.

In striking visual detail, The Codes of Gender explores Goffman’s central claim that gender ideals are the result of ritualized cultural performance, uncovering a remarkable pattern of masculine and feminine displays and poses. It looks beyond advertising as a medium that simply sells products, and beyond analyses of gender that focus on biological difference or issues of objectification and beauty, to provide a clear-eyed view of the two-tiered terrain of identity and power relations.

A bold anthology for a new generation of film theory

Critical Visions in Film Theory
Classic and Contemporary Readings
Timothy Corrigan, University of Pennsylvania
Patricia White, Swarthmore College
Meta Mazaj, University of Pennsylvania

A new kind of film theory anthology for a new generation, Critical Visions in Film Theory offers fresh perspectives on classic debates in areas like film form, genre, and authorship and includes areas of theory not covered in any other anthology—from the issues of representing race and ethnicity onscreen to discussions of film’s relationship to television and video games. With over 80 selections and the contextual support students need to engage with the challenges of studying film theory, Critical Visions offers the most diverse selection of theorists and the best guidance for students.

Anyway you teach film...we’ve got you covered

Camera Obscura

Feminism, Culture, and Media Studies

Since its inception, Camera Obscura has devoted itself to providing innovative feminist perspectives on film, television, and visual media. It consistently combines excellence in scholarship with imaginative presentation and a willingness to lead media studies in new directions. The journal has developed a reputation for introducing emerging writers into the field. Its debates, essays, interviews, and summary pieces encompass a spectrum of media practices, including avant-garde, alternative, fringe, international, and mainstream.

Camera Obscura continues to redefine its original statement of purpose. While remaining faithful to its feminist focus, the journal also explores feminist work in relation to race studies, postcolonial studies, and queer studies.

ACLS Humanities E-Book
Individual Subscriptions for Society for Cinema & Media Studies Members

ACLS Humanities E-Book (HEB) offers individual subscriptions to over 3,300 full-text, cross-searchable titles in the humanities linked to journal reviews.

In 2011, the collection will host more than 200 titles in film and media, many of which have been recommended by the Society for Cinema and Media Studies.

The collection offers three film series from Cambridge University Press — Cambridge Film Classics, Cambridge Film Handbooks and Cambridge Studies in Film — as well as foundational works from authors, such as Rudolph Arnheim, André Bazin, Marshall McLuhan and Laura Mulvey. HEB also features works by seminal screenwriters and filmmakers, including Luis Buñuel, Raymond Chandler, Alfred Hitchcock and Frederick Wiseman.

HEB continues to expand, adding approximately 500 titles per year across all disciplines. Please visit www.humanitiesebook.org for more information.

EDITED BY MICHAEL T. MARTIN

IU Press, in partnership with the Indiana University Black Film Center/Archive, is now the publisher of Black Camera, An International Film Journal (The New Series). Black Camera is devoted to the study of the black cinematic experience and is the only scholarly film journal of its kind in the United States. It features essays and interviews that engage film in social as well as political contexts and in relation to historical and economic forces that bear on the reception, distribution, and production of film in local, regional, national, and transnational settings and environments. Black Camera includes research and archival notes, editorials, reports, interviews with emerging and prominent filmmakers, and book and film reviews and addresses a wide range of genres.

EDITED BY RICHARD KOSZARSKI

In its first twenty years, Film History has published over 600 remarkable essays documenting every phase of the motion picture’s cultural, economic and technological development.

International in scope, its pages span the entire history of the medium, from the technological and entrepreneurial innovations of early and pre-cinema experimenters through all aspects of the production, marketing, distribution and reception of commercial and non-commercial motion pictures.

Drawing on a wide range of contributors, from the field’s most respected historians to the groundbreaking work of a new generation of scholars, Film History speaks with authority, insight, and clarity.

PUBLISHED SEMIANNUALLY
eISSN 1553-3905 | pISSN 0892-2160

“Anyone with a serious interest in the history of the cinema should subscribe to Film History. This excellent journal combines the rigors of contemporary research with a wide range of historical interests. It is first rate scholarship presented in a clear and compelling way.”

Martin Scorsese
FILM DIRECTOR

“In a world of increased diversity and complexity, Black Camera will be at the forefront of the cinematic depiction of ‘difference.’”

Hollywood Goes Oriental
Caucasian Performance in American Film
Karla Rae Fuller
“Fuller’s discussion of cross-ethnic performance in Hollywood films is long overdue. She adds valuable insights to film studies, ethnic studies, and gender studies, while her use of performance theory in the analysis—in which ethnicity is viewed as a social construct that is expressed through the body—points to the possibility of new perspectives.”
—Jenny Lau, professor of cinema at San Francisco State University

The Honeymooners
By David Sterritt

"The Honeymooners displays considerable intelligence and erudition, but is written in a readable style that should make it appealing to undergraduates, media scholars, and the show’s legion of fans. It is by far the best contribution to our appreciation of a genuinely classic television program."

—Christopher Sharrett, author of The Rifleman

Dark Shadows

I Love Lucy
By Lori Landay

“For a short book, I Love Lucy covers quite a lot of ground: the cultural, industrial, and commercial contexts in which the comedy series was produced and watched; the significance of Ball’s star text and performativity; and the series’ impact on the TV situation comedy genre.

—Steven Cohan, Professor of English at Syracuse University

The International Journal of Learning and Media (IJLM) provides a forum for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to examine the changing relationships between learning and media across a wide range of forms and settings. IJLM explores the broader social and cultural dimensions of these issues and in new and emerging media technologies, forms, and practices. The journal promotes international and intercultural exchange and dialogue in the field and encourages contributions from a variety of academic disciplines and perspectives, including papers from practitioners and policy-makers. While retaining the peer review process of a traditional academic journal, IJLM also provide opportunities for more topical and polemical writing, for visual and multimedia presentations, and for online dialogues.

IJLM is published by the MIT Press in partnership with the Monterey Institute for Technology in Education and support from the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation.

Star Decades: American Culture/American Cinema presents original essays analyzing the movie star against the background of contemporary American cultural history. As icon, as mediated personality, and as object of audience fascination and desire, the Hollywood star remains the model for celebrity in modern culture and represents a paradoxical combination of achievement, talent, ability, luck, authenticity, superficiality, and ordinariness.

PROJECTIONS
The Journal for Movies and Mind

Editor: Ira Konigsberg, Professor Emeritus of Film, University of Michigan

Associate Editors: Carl Plantinga, Calvin College, Lesley Caldwell, UCL and Uri Hasson, Princeton University

Published in association with The Society for Cognitive Studies of the Moving Image (SCSMI)* and The Forum for Movies and Mind

Projections is an interdisciplinary, peer-reviewed journal that explores the ways in which recent advancements in fields such as cognitive psychology, neuroscience, psychoanalysis, genetics, and evolution help to increase our understanding of film, and how film itself facilitates investigations into the nature and function of the mind. The journal also incorporates articles on the visual arts and new technologies related to film. The aims of the journal are to explore these subjects, facilitate a dialogue between people in the sciences and the humanities, and bring the study of film to the forefront of contemporary intellectual debate.

PRAISE FOR PROJECTIONS FROM LEADING SCHOLARS IN THE FIELD

"...A SHOWCASE FOR THE MOST FRUITFUL CURRENT RESEARCH INTO THE WAYS THAT MODERN MEDIA WORK ON, AND WITH, THE HUMAN MIND."
DAVID BORDWELL, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

"...PIONEERING IN OUR FIELD." EDWARD BRANNIGAN, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA SANTA BARBARA

"...AN EXCITING EXPLORATION OF THE FRONTIERS OF CONSCIOUSNESS AND ITS TWIN – THE TECHNOLOGY OF THE MOVING IMAGE."
TOM GUNNING, UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

"...READ ON AND BE STIMULATED TO LEARN. FIRST RATE!" GILBERT J. ROSE, YALE UNIVERSITY

Music, Sound, and the Moving Image

MSMI is the first international scholarly journal devoted to the study of the interaction between music and sound with the entirety of moving image media – film, television, music video, advertising, computer games, mixed-media installation, digital art, live cinema, et alia. The journal is truly interdisciplinary, inviting contributions across a range of critical methodologies, including musicology and music analysis, film studies, popular music studies, cultural theory, aesthetics, semiotics, sociology, marketing, sound studies, and music psychology.
