

Session 1: So, You Think You Want to be a Superintendent?

CASE Convention breakout session - Registration required

Do I want to be a Superintendent? What are the elements of the job? This session is designed to offer an opportunity for leaders who are possibly interested in pursuing a superintendency to learn more about the role. So, you think you want to be a Superintendent will offer a general overview and ample opportunity for dialogue and questions. Interested participants may then want to engage in a deeper dive into the topic through the continued learning series offered by CASE.

Session 2: Exploring the Superintendency/Charting Your Path

Principal Conference breakout session - Registration required

This session will include a review of session 1 held at the 2023 CASE Convention as well as exploring next steps in charting the path to the superintendency.

Session 3: Exploring the Superintendency

CASE Winter Leadership Pre-conference - Registration required

This workshop is specifically geared toward aspiring superintendents, as well as administrators who are considering the superintendency role. Participants will gain an understanding about what is necessary to be a successful superintendent, explore their personal fit with the position and learn what life is like after accepting the role. Participants will gain insight into the application process including interviews and contracts.

- Gain knowledge from experienced superintendents about what is necessary to be successful.
- Explore how to make a conscious choice to be a superintendent.
- Better understand leadership, politics, policy, and change management.
- Identify next steps to get ready for the superintendency.
