

Craig Hein is the General Counsel of the Colorado School Districts Self Insurance Pool, where he provides free legal advice to Members on all topics of school law, including employment, to help Members better understand their legal obligations, ensure compliance with the law, and avoid liability down the road. Prior to joining CSDSIP, he served as the Deputy General Counsel at Adams 12 Five Star Schools.