OVERVIEW – CASE MEMBERSHIP

CASE membership offers you valuable benefits that will benefit your career as a public education administrator.

As a member, your interests are represented by us at the state Capitol, the State Board of Education, and in other policy settings; we advocate for public education and work to defeat harmful legislation. CASE professional learning opportunities are specifically geared toward your learning needs and will provide you with best practices, the latest research, and practical strategies to help you grow as a leader. Being a part of this influential statewide network of administrators allows you to develop relationships with colleagues in other districts, and our timely communications ensure you are up to speed on the issues impacting K-12.

Legal assistance, liability insurance, state level leadership opportunities, complimentary financial planning services, and eligibility for prestigious awards like Superintendent of the Year and Principal of the Year, are just a few more ways your CASE membership will benefit you.

DIFFERENT MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

FULL ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP

Are you a full-time administrator at either the school or central office level? Active CASE membership is the right member type for you! This member category is also perfect for those who are engaged in a support relationship, or provide training to leadership through other agencies, or are identified as active by a specific department; dues for Full Active Membership are based on a tiered schedule of salary ranges, reflecting administrative compensation levels.

Full Active Members receive all CASE member benefits, including advocacy services, member rates on professional learning events, complimentary professional learning events available only to members, timely and regular communications, liability insurance, complimentary financial planning services, and legal services. You will also be eligible to serve on CASE boards and committees, and to apply for state-level awards offered in conjunction with our partner national associations.

ASPIRING LEADER MEMBERSHIP

The Aspiring Leader Membership is right for those who are (1) educators with an administrative license who are not currently practicing administrators, (2) non-administrative, licensed professionals from a school or district who are working towards becoming a practicing administrator, (3) currently employed by a district and is aspiring to be in a leadership role and CASE is part of that preparation, (4) individuals from higher education, an education organization or a state department who prefer an individual rather than commercial membership or institutional membership.

DIFFERENT MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP

Non-administrators who are enrolled in a principal or administrator licensure program through a college or university qualify for this membership type; student members must be enrolled in a degree program during the time of membership, and the membership will expire upon graduation.

EMERITUS MEMBERSHIP

Active CASE members who retire and wish to continue to benefit from and support CASE can stay involved as Emeritus members.

AFFILIATE & FULL DISTRICT MEMBERSHIP

Both of these memberships apply to those administrators who are covered by a formal CASE/school district agreement. Affiliate members receive a reduced set of member benefits, and full district members receive all benefits. Please contact CASE if you are interested in a membership agreement for your district.

COMMERCIAL/INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Commercial organizations, institutions of higher education, education groups and professional organizations that are (1) in a support relationship to education leaders, or (2) provide training to school administrators are invited to join CASE as commercial or institutional members.

As an organization that supports public education (or sells services and products that support public education), you will receive member rates on professional learning events (including exhibit space), plus other member benefits, including timely communications and other benefits of a commercial partnership.

ADVOCACY BENEFITS

The CASE Advocacy Team advances the interest and champions the voice of Colorado's public education leaders at the state capitol, with the State Board of Education, the Colorado Department of Education, and in key policy conversations across the state and nation.

We are widely recognized as a trusted, expert voice on the issues impacting K-12 education because we represent and work directly with school and district leaders who are closest to the work. We actively engage in state and federal policy discussions to ensure that Colorado's public education system is supported and strengthened at every level of government.

Fighting for school funding	CASE works hard to protect every possible dollar for K-12 education. We lead the charge for increased investment in public schools and push back on school funding policies that shortchange Colorado's students.
Building coalitions	We partner with other education stakeholders to strengthen the unified voice for public education. CASE has positive working relationships with a number of state and national education groups.
Weighing in where it matters	Typically, there are about 80 education-related bills introduced every year. We track and actively lobby the legislation that stands to impact you and K-12 public education the most.
Creating awareness	CASE is continually sought out by policymakers because we represent expert leaders. We share your perspectives and expertise with legislators to help build awareness of the issues facing K-12.

Other advocacy benefits include:

- Opportunity to get more involved in legislative & policy work, including the chance to testify in committee hearings and share your perspectives on critical K-12 issues
- Access to BriefCASE, our digital newsletter featuring the latest updates on advocacy and legislative issues
- Access to Fast Democracy, an online legislative bill tracker
- Ability to sit on (and vote as a committee member), or just attend, the CASE Legislative Committee and the State Board of Education Advocacy Committee, both of which meet regularly to discuss policy issues that pertain to members

CoSN Membership for the 2025-26 Year

CoSN Membership Provided by CALET: As part of CASE and CALET's ongoing commitment to supporting educational technology leadership, CALET (CASE's department for educational technology leaders) has invested department funds to renew the Consortium for School Networking (CoSN) statewide membership for the 2025–2026 year.

COMMUNICATIONS BENEFITS

This renewal means every Colorado school district with an active CASE member now receives a district-wide CoSN membership at no cost to the district. CoSN memberships run July 1 – June 30 and are separate from your CASE membership.

If your district already has a CoSN account, there's no need to renew—it's covered by CALET. CoSN memberships are district-based, so you can extend the benefits to unlimited district staff, ensuring everyone who supports digital learning can access national resources, professional learning, and peer networks.

How It Works: CASE will provide CoSN with a “point person” for each eligible district. CoSN will contact each district's point person with instructions to activate the membership and add additional staff. We thank the CALET Board for their leadership in making sure CASE members have unmatched access to EdTech support and professional growth opportunities.

Questions or need more information to ensure you are getting these benefits? Email us at case@co-case.org and we'll help you get connected.

Resources on our Website

- Bulletin Board: Each week, the CASE Bulletin Board will be updated with timely and informative news for you and your fellow educators. Topics include current events, CDE announcements, and anything we think you should know about!
- CASExchange: The intent of the CASExchange is to share the quality work that is happening in our member districts. We are hoping that the CASExchange will empower members to define and showcase future-focused learning happening in individual districts. The point is to learn from each other, encourage change and build a collaborative network for educational leaders.

GETTING INVOLVED

Expand your influence through CASE leadership opportunities! By serving on a CASE department or committee, you'll gain valuable experience and a greater awareness of the statewide K-12 perspective. Help shape the direction and priorities of CASE, broaden your professional network, and sharpen your leadership skills.

CASE Coordinating Council

CASE is governed by a 24-member Coordinating Council, which is made up of the President, President-elect, and Past President of CASE's seven departments. Additionally, the CASE President, CASE President-elect, and CASE Past President serve on the Council. The Coordinating Council plays an important leadership role at CASE by overseeing the work of our organization, determining policies and priorities, and adopting an annual budget.

CASE Department Boards

Each of CASE's seven departments is governed by a board of directors. These boards set the course and activities for their departments, and help connect what's happening in the field to the work that CASE does on a daily basis. Board members gain a unique perspective on the issues and challenges facing their job-alike colleagues in other districts. They also have the chance to hear regularly and directly from CASE about the work of the association and weigh in on those priorities. Department board elections are held annually, and directors are selected and voted on by their department member peers.

CASE Committees

CASE committees offer another opportunity to get involved in our work, and ensure your voice is heard. Serve on committees like the Legislative Committee, the State Board of Education Advocacy Committee, the CASE Professional Learning Advisory Group, the Membership Committee, or the CASE Platform Committee, and share your perspective and insights. Openings for these committees are announced as they become available.

CASE Awards

Every year, CASE accepts nominations and evaluates candidates for many prestigious awards, including Superintendent of the Year, Principal of the Year, and others. Only nominees who are active CASE members are eligible for awards.
