Do you know what it means to provide effective feedback to your staff? Are your staff excelling at instruction and improving student outcomes at the rate you'd like them to be?

If not, you're not alone. CASE's Effective Feedback for Effective Educators course provides leaders with the tools they need to increase effectiveness in educators.

Evaluator Designees Approval is available through this workshop. In order to earn your certification, a pre-seminar assignment must also be completed.
