Do you hold an administrative license or are you working toward one and would like to know more about applying and interviewing for leadership positions? As a course participant, you will enter your job search with feedback on how to improve your letter of interest and resumé, insight into current issues facing education leaders in Colorado, a clear understanding of the personal and professional attributes you will bring to a leadership position and interview practice will district-level professionals. You will:

• Receive personalized feedback on your resume and application packet from some of the region’s top human resource professionals and participate in mock interviews.
• Become informed on current state-wide education initiatives and the hottest issues facing school leaders in Colorado today.
• Discover how your own personal strengths compare to the Rubric for Evaluating Colorado’s Principals.
• Gain clarity regarding your motivations for becoming a school leader.
• Prepare for next steps in searching for that “perfect fit” job in school leadership.
