Connecting You to the Information You Need

As a financial professional, you know that the pace of change in our industry can be daunting, so staying abreast of developments is key to your success. COAFP helps you stay connected and informed by providing monthly events and our annual conference, the Buckeye Financial Forum. COAFP also sponsors CTP Exam Preparation classes for those pursuing the Certified Treasury Professional (CTP) designation - our study sessions are a great way to prepare! www.coafp.net

Monthly Luncheons

COAFP brings industry leaders to our members to conduct compelling seminars and webinars.

Here are just a few recent topics

- The Central Ohio Economy Update
- Best Practices in Treasury & Finance
- Federal Reserve Economic Update
- Connecting the Dots on Bitcoin, Blockchain and Financial Pros
- How Columbus became the #1 Opportunity City in America
- One Day Financial Planning and Analysis workshop

Social and Tours Events

A primary COAFP goal is to provide members with the opportunity to meet industry peers and experts to enhance their network. Members enjoy fun, casual social and networking events sponsored by COAFP with many providing CTP credit. COAFP also coordinates events within the community. Examples of social and tours events include behind the scenes tours at The Capital Area Humane Society, The Columbus Zoo, the Ohio Theatre, Columbus's North Market, and the YMCA of central Ohio.

Annual Buckeye Financial Forum

Earn up to seven CTP or CPE credits at COAFP's annual conference! The Buckeye Financial Forum is the premier event for financial professionals, drawing broad attendance and sponsorship, both from our banking and our corporate members.

Some past topics include:

- Card Acceptance—PCI Compliance
- Financial Statement Fraud & Other Red Flags
- Current Cyber Threats
- Benefiting from Global Standards
- Economic Impact on International Trade Finance

Volunteer
