

2009 Installation Luncheon June 12, 2009 Grey Oaks Country Club

More than 80 members were on hand to witness the new directors and officers of the Collier County Bar Association be officially sworn in by Judge Hugh Hayes. The crowd was in for a special treat as Judge Ted Brousseau and Judge Daniel Monaco joined Judge Hayes in presenting the 2009 Lion of the Law Award to Jeffrey Fridkin. The award recognizes excellence in legal skills, professionalism and public service; traits that the honorees share with our board members. While we welcome our new board members, we acknowledge the dedication and service of our outgoing members, Joe Foster and Ed Koester. Congratulations to everyone for the well-deserved public acknowledgement of all that you do.

Judge Hayes poses proudly with the 2009-2010 CCBA Board of Directors: Starling Hendriks, Judge Janeice Martin (Immediate Past President), Tara Miller Dane, Jeanne Seewald (Secretary), John T. Cardillo, Sonia Diaz, Maggie McMorrow (Treasurer), Sharon Hanlon, Tamara Nicola, Pieter Van Dien (President) and Marc Huling. Not pictured: Jon Scuderi (President-Elect).

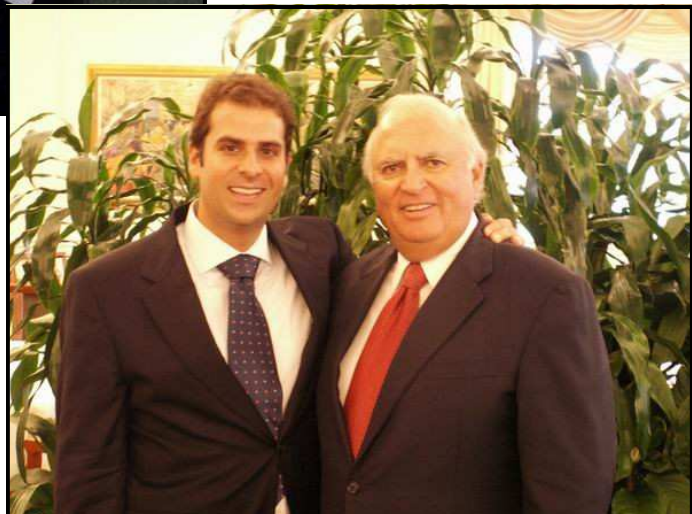

Everyone enjoying the lunch and program at Grey Oaks Country Club.

Pieter Van Dien presents a plaque to outgoing president, Judge Janeice Martin to thank her for her hard work and dedication to the CCBA.

Jeffrey Fridkin accepts the Lion of the Law Award from Judges Daniel Monaco, Ted Brousseau and Hugh Hayes.

New director, John T. Cardillo with proud father, John P. Cardillo. The senior Cardillo is a former CCBA board member, who served as president for the 1975-1976 season.

The Collier County Bar Association gratefully acknowledges the support of the sponsors who made this event possible:

Berry, Day & McFee, PA

Hahn, Loeser & Parks, LLP

Harter, Secrest & Emery, LLP

Grant, Fridkin, Pearson, Athan & Crown, PA

Quarles & Brady, LLP

Salvatori & Wood, PL

Westlaw

Special thanks to our official photographer, Carol O'Callaghan.