

2008 Installation Luncheon Friday, June 13, 2008 Grey Oaks Country Club

Incoming officers and directors of the CCBA were sworn in at the annual luncheon. This event had it all: humor, history and hope for the future. President Kathleen Passidomo gave a wry presentation which featured gifts for her fellow officers such as a tiara for incoming president, Janeice Martin. Judge Hayes honored us once again by swearing in the new CCBA leadership. With this much talent and dedication in one organization, 2008-2009 promises to be a wonderful year for the CCBA.

Judge Hayes swears in our new CCBA Officers for the 2008-2009 year: Janeice Martin, President;; Jon Scuderi, Treasurer; Pieter Van Dien, President-Elect; and Margaret McMorrow, Secretary.

Judge Hayes swears in our new CCBA Directors for the 2008-2009 year: Tamara Nicola, Joe Foster, Tara Miller, Dane, Sonia Diaz, Ed Koester, Jeanne Seewald, Sharon Hanlon and our Immediate Past President, Kathleen Passidomo.

Incoming President, Janeice Martin, gives everyone a hopeful glimpse of the future while praising Kathleen Passidomo for the past year. She added a historical note of celebration marking the 60th anniversary of the CCBA.

Judge Hayes gave a history of our Lion of the Law Award by relating the story of Donald E. Van Koughnet, for whom the award is named. He then asked Judge Monaco to help him present this year's award to William Keith of Cardillo, Keith and Bonaquist. The two judges gave a very moving and humorous speech. They did so well in fact, that they are now polishing their act for future engagements!

Bill and Jill Keith join Judges Monaco and Hayes at the podium to not only to thank them for the award, but also to give his own side of the story!
