

Law Week Luncheon 2011

The theme for this year's law day was The Legacy of John Adams. We were pleased to have this as a starting point for our festivities. Judge Darryl Casanueva was our keynote speaker at the luncheon and presented an interesting history on President Adams and his firm belief in the rule of law.

We were also honored to host some wonderful students from our area. The winning Mock Trial team from the Community School were on hand. And representatives from the Golden Gate High School JRTOC presented the honor guard. They also presented our Foundation with a certificate of appreciation for our support of their program.

We also presented the annual Law Week Award during this event-filled luncheon. Our very own Maggie McMorrow was nominated and selected based upon her outstanding work in the community as well as her devotion to the Collier County Bar Association and Foundation.

The Collier County Bar Foundation gratefully acknowledges the sponsors who made this event possible.
