- Do you have to send money to someone you have an on-line friendship with, but have never met?
 - Have you received a large check and been asked to wire some of the money back to the person who sent you the check?

It is very likely that all these situations are scams and your money will be gone forever while you get nothing in return!!

Be Informed, Be Aware!

Never send money to someone you have not met in person, and confirm emergency situations are real before you send any money (Call other relatives or friends to confirm).

If you suspect that you are being scammed, please call your local law enforcement agency for information and assistance.

Caution! Caution!

Before you withdrawal or wire money THINK ABOUT THE INFORMATION BELOW:

- Is the money being sent to a foreign country? (especially in Africa, Jamaica, etc.)
- Do you have to wire money to collect a prize?
- Do you really know who you are sending the money to?
- If someone claiming to be a grandchild, or an old friend, says they need money to get out of jail in a foreign country or for some other emergency, have you confirmed that they are who they say they are and confirmed that the emergency is real by calling other relatives, etc.?
- Have you been threatened with arrest unless you pay a fine?
- Do you have to pay "fees" or "taxes" so you can get money that you allegedly won?
