

The Voice of Colorado Chiropractic Since 1917

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 26, 2018

TO: ALL COLORADO CHIROPRACTORS

The Colorado Board of Chiropractic Examiners (CBCE) has released a set of proposed rule changes that may impact your practice!

The CCA has formed a task force to review these proposed changes and will submit comments at the upcoming Stakeholders meeting on July 2nd. The draft rules as noted below are not the current reflection of the CCA's Board of Directors.

You can either submit your comments to the CCA's task force via email at cca@coloradochiropractic.org OR DORA encourages any feedback from Stakeholders to be sent directly to DORA via email at dora_chiropractorsboard@state.co.us. Directly below is the CBCE announcement with the proposed rule changes, meeting information, and options for submitting comments and concerns.

Greetings from the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners,

The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners will hold a stakeholder meeting to collect input on proposed changes to Board Rules 1-29. Stakeholder input is crucial to achieving the Department's mission of consumer protection and effective licensure and enforcement, without unnecessary impediment to the economic market. The board will use stakeholder feedback to assess if changes to the proposed rules are needed.
