

CSA Computer Lab Safety Training

SAFETY AWARENESS FUNDAMENTALS –GENERAL INDUSTRY

Safety Awareness Fundamentals General Industry is designed to train you on the basic safety rules to satisfy regulations, introduce you to the practices necessary to perform your work safely in a heavy industrial construction or maintenance contract environment, and reinforce that knowledge in more experienced workers.

The course will cover what to expect upon entering a jobsite, rules for safely moving around on a jobsite, general information on doing the job safely, and emergency response procedures.

Course Fee

CSA Member: $32

Alliance Member: $32

Non-Member: $42

Course Length: 2 Hours

Course Expiration: 3 years from course date

Passing Score Required: 70

Topics include:

- General Safety
- Hazard Communication
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Hearing Conservation
- Respiratory Protection
- Elevated Work and Fall Protection
- Electrical Safety for the Non-Qualified Worker
- Job Safety Analysis
- Trenching and Excavation
- Process Safety Management

Schedule your appointment at www.coloradosafety.org ▶▶▶