

Celebrating Future Leaders: Announcing the 2025 CSHP Foundation Scholarship Recipients

The CSHP Research & Education Foundation is deeply honored to announce the recipients of the 2025 CSHP Foundation Scholarships. These two exceptional student pharmacists have demonstrated outstanding leadership, dedication, and a strong commitment to the ethical principles of health-system pharmacy practice.

These awards are made possible through the generous support of our donors and are critical in helping support the educational goals and leadership development of the next generation of pharmacy professionals.

The John J. Carbone Memorial Scholarship Recipient: Inshaal Rehman, PharmD Candidate 2026 - Loma Linda University, School of Pharmacy

We are proud to recognize Inshaal Rehman as the recipient of the John J. Carbone Memorial Scholarship. This prestigious award is given to a student who demonstrates the highest standards of leadership and compassion, reflecting the lifetime dedication of Dr. Carbone.

Inshaal shared her gratitude upon receiving the award:

"I am deeply honored to be the recipient of the John J. Carbone Memorial Scholarship. This award will support my continued growth as a future health-system pharmacy leader and allow me to further pursue opportunities that strengthen my skills in leadership and education. I am truly grateful to the Carbone family and the CSHP Foundation for this recognition and for continuing Dr. Carbone's legacy of ethical leadership and compassion in pharmacy practice. His lifelong dedication to advancing the profession serves as an inspiration to me as I strive to uphold those same values throughout my career."

The Joseph H. Beckerman Memorial Scholarship Recipient:
Sonia Singh, PharmD Candidate 2026 - University of the Pacific, Thomas J.
Long School of Pharmacy

We are equally excited to announce Sonia Singh as the recipient of the Joseph H. Beckerman Memorial Scholarship. This scholarship recognizes dedication to professionalism, mentorship, and advancing the practice of health-system pharmacy.

Sonia expressed the personal significance of this honor:

"I am deeply honored to be selected as the recipient of the Joseph H. Beckerman Memorial Scholarship. This award carries special meaning, as it recognizes the values of professionalism, leadership, and compassion that Dr. Beckerman embodied throughout his career. His dedication to advancing health-system pharmacy and mentoring the next generation inspires me to continue striving toward these same ideals."

The CSHP Foundation is committed to investing in the future of our profession. We extend our warmest congratulations to Inshaal Rehman and Sonia Singh on this well-deserved recognition!
