Krystal Pong Dahl, Pharm.D., is the Recipient of CSHP's 2016 New Practitioner Achievement Award

Sacramento, CA. The California Society of Health-System Pharmacists (CSHP) has named Krystal Pong Dahl, Pharm.D. as the recipient of the 2016 New Practitioner Achievement Award. This award is CSHP's highest honor for our newly practicing pharmacists and will be presented at CSHP's annual meeting, Seminar, being held October 27 - 30 in Anaheim, CA.

Dr. Pong Dahl received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of California, San Francisco School of Pharmacy and then completed her residency training at the San Francisco Veterans Affairs Medical Center with a focus in ambulatory care. She is currently the Program Manager for Ambulatory Care Pharmacy Services at John Muir Health and started the ambulatory care pharmacy program at John Muir Health in 2014.

The New Practitioner Achievement Award was introduced in 2013 and is designed to recognize exemplary new practitioners who have made significant contributions to his/her local chapter and have promoted CSHP's Mission.

Krystal and other award recipients will be honored during CSHP's Seminar 2016 on Saturday, October 29, 2016.

Founded in 1962, the California Society of Health-System Pharmacists (CSHP) is a non-profit professional association established to serve the needs of hospital and health-system pharmacists. Representing over 4,000 members who practice clinical pharmacy and specialized medicine, CSHP is the largest state association for pharmacists. CSHP members share a common mission – to promote wellness, patient safety and the optimal use of medication.
