

Mackenzie Clark, PharmD, Aph, BCGP, BCPS

Dr. Mackenzie Clark is a Clinical Pharmacist at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF Health), Office of Population Health and Assistant Clinical Professor for UCSF School of Pharmacy. She earned her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from The University of Montana and completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at UCSF Medical Center. Her areas of focus for clinical services include population health management, chronic disease state management (diabetes and hypertension), comprehensive medication management, and transitional care management utilizing in-person and virtual communications with patients. She currently serves as the CSHP Golden Gate Chapter President-Elect and a member of the Geriatric Care Council.