Inaugural EpiVision stage at CSTE 2025 Annual Conference

who is CSTE?

94.6% of members
work in state, Tribal, local or territorial health departments

The Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists (CSTE) is the professional home for applied epidemiologists representing multiple levels of public health practice.

Members have surveillance and epidemiology expertise in a broad range of areas including occupational health, infectious diseases, environmental health, chronic diseases, injury, maternal and child health, Tribal epidemiology, and more. CSTE also supports effective public health surveillance and sound epidemiologic practice through training, capacity development, and peer consultation. We help deliver high quality data through modernization efforts and advance health for all by improving overall public health policy—all in service of our vision of thriving and healthy people and communities everywhere.

organizational Champions

CSTE's Organizational Champion Program was launched in 2023 to offer companies a year-round suite of benefits that help them better connect with CSTE and its members. Champions, in turn, support the mission of CSTE: advance the field of applied epidemiology to maximize health. A win-win! We know our Annual Conference is a hallmark for many partners, a best-in-class offering in this amazing corner of public health. We believe these two programs—one established, one new—work best in tandem. See Page 5 for upgrade paths that make for an amazing, comprehensive experience for your business!

Organizational Champion benefits include:

➔ Host an educational webinar for CSTE members, showcasing your own footprint in public health outside of the Annual Conference season!

➔ Direct access to our members via Associate Memberships, allowing you to participate in committees across CSTE.

➔ Access to the CSTE Annual Conference at the Exhibitor level, meaning you won't have to choose between both of these amazing programs.

➔ CSTE Career Center Listings, giving your open positions broad exposure to qualified candidates within the CSTE community.

➔ Sponsored post in CSTE's member newsletter, a twice-monthly periodical that boasts a 55% open rate and a 7.4% click rate.

2026 Annual Conference Sponsor & Exhibitor Opportunities

The CSTE Annual Conference is the largest gathering of its kind, bringing together thousands of public health practitioners from across the country. Attendees meet to share knowledge, trends, challenges, and best practices in the field of applied epidemiology, and then carry that information back to their jurisdictions. Our epis hold key roles in public health across and in a broad range of areas.

By supporting the CSTE Annual Conference, your organization will heighten its brand recognition and profile with thousands of attendees. You'll also get to network with relevant public health professionals and educate them about your products and services. See the table below for our basic 2026 Annual Conference benefits, and jump to the next page to see how you can enhance your partnership. This is one of the most unique and energizing events of the year—don't miss out!
