BECOME A SUPPORTER

We are pleased to provide you with the following overview of the support opportunities at the Gala, offered through May 19, 2014. Join us in extending congratulations to the evening’s honoree and The Copyright Society on its 60th anniversary.

An extraordinary event held the night before the 2014 Annual Meeting of The Copyright Society at the Great Hall of the Jefferson Building at the Library of Congress, with a panoramic view of the Capitol, the Mall, the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial. Parts of the Library’s private collection will be opened for the evening.

The event promises to be a truly extraordinary evening with friends, colleagues and members of the Washington, D.C. community in a memorable setting. Help us celebrate the evening and make it a success.

We invite you to contact us at any time with any questions.

GALA PROGRAM BOOK SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS
For Gala program book message submissions, please submit the following materials before May 19, 2014 to marcie@mycustomfx.com for approval by The Copyright Society: [1] a Word file containing the message's plain text and [2] a PDF, JPG or EPS file containing the proposed message's color layout with text and graphics. Message's art must be 300 DPI or higher resolution and in color. Approximate measurements: 5.75"w x 8.75"h live copy area (full page, portrait orientation); 5.75"w x 4"h live copy area (1/2 page, horizontal orientation).

LOGO REQUIREMENTS
Please contact amy@csusa.org to provide the following if your selected Gala support level offers logo recognition benefits: [1] one .EPS file for print items and [2] one JPG file (.PNG is also acceptable) for website use. All images should be at least 72 DPI and optimized to have file sizes as small as possible. Square images should be 213 pixels wide and no more than 213 pixels deep. Rectangular images should be 213 pixels wide by at least 40 pixels deep. All text should be as large as possible within these dimensions. Logos larger than 50K cannot be used. For larger files please email amy@csusa.org for file transfer information.

MATERIALS & GIFT REQUIREMENTS
Please contact amy@csusa.org to provide for approval a sample of your proposed printed marketing material or gift for The Copyright Society’s Annual Meeting, if your Gala support level offers this benefit. Once approved, a shipping address will be provided. Please expect to ship approximately 300 units so they are received by June 2, 2014. Please note that sponsor is responsible for all duties, insurance, costs, and ensuring that shipment arrives at specified addresses by the deadline.

ABOUT THE COPYRIGHT SOCIETY OF THE U.S.A.
The Copyright Society, a non-profit organization established in 1953, is the only nation-wide organization devoted to copyright law, education and understanding. Headquartered in New York City and having 11 chapters across the country, its mission is to foster interest in and advance the study of copyright law in literature, music, art, the theater, motion pictures, television and other forms of intellectual property, including computer programs, architectural works and other works of authorship. The Copyright Society’s membership includes attorneys, individuals, copyright industry professionals, business organizations, law firms and associations involved in or affected by copyright. Additional information about The Copyright Society and its diverse national and regional events can be found by visiting www.csusa.org. The Copyright Society welcomes new members and we hope you consider joining us.

THE COPYRIGHT SOCIETY’S ANNUAL MEETING 2014
The Copyright Society’s Annual Meeting is one of the organization’s annual national events that brings together industry leaders from the legal, business, and creative communities in the U.S. and abroad for educational legal panels and presentations. Held in a different city each year, the Copyright Society’s 2014 Annual Meeting will take place on June 8-10 at the Fairmont Washington, D.C., Georgetown hotel. The Annual Meeting will provide a collaborative discourse on the legal and business issues that are at the forefront of copyright and intellectual property. Over the course of two and a half days, the event will broaden the perspectives of The Copyright Society’s members and friends and also provide exceptional networking opportunities.
