

ABOUT THE CONNECTICUT ENVIRONMENTAL COUNCIL

CTEC is a coalition of professional associations, businesses and individuals that galvanizes, unites and informs its diverse membership on issues concerning the regulation and legislation of pesticides, integrated pest management, fertilizer and water conservation.

Why be a CTEC member:

To be part of a community of professionals that:

- Share the same concerns of over regulation & legislation
- Are informed on environmental advocacy issues & movements
- Value educational opportunities for continuing education credits and increasing professional knowledge

The Connecticut Environmental Council invites you to get involved:

- Grassroots advocacy & activities
  - Contact your legislator by phone, email or letter
  - Testifying at state committee hearings
  - Running for public office
- Annual networking/fundraising golf tournament
- Committee involvement: Annual meeting, website, membership, publications
- Board of Directors
