Hospitals ask feds to declare CT Medicaid rates, hospital tax illegal

Citing a host of job and program cuts and funding levels that threaten hospital viability and patients’ access to care, Connecticut hospitals have asked the federal government to declare that the state is violating federal law by paying inadequate rates for treating Medicaid patients and imposing a $556 million tax on the industry.

There’s a lot of anxiety:’ Mental health system braces for more cuts

So far, the impact of cuts to the state’s mental health system has been mixed, those involved say. Some agencies have absorbed reductions, while others have reduced hours, cut staff or closed programs. But nearly all expect that the cuts they’ve already faced are just a start.

CMS Issues Memo to States with Implementation Plans for Emergency Preparedness Rules

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services’ (CMS) issued a memorandum to State Survey Agency Directors titled "Information on the Implementation Plans for the Emergency Preparedness Regulation." Some of the information included in the memorandum was mentioned on a recent CMS conference call, but having it published in a single document is helpful for the states as well as the providers and suppliers impacted by the regulation.
