Make Take Your Child to the Library Day one of many trips to your local library.

It fosters early literacy & a life-long love of reading!

Take Your Child to the Library Day is officially held on the first Saturday in February — but libraries can celebrate any time!

Why not contact your local library to see what they have planned?

Visit cttlibrarians.org/findmylibrary to locate a library near you!

www.takeyourchildtothelibrary.org