SECTION TWO – ORGANIZATIONAL BACKGROUND

The following section should not exceed 2 pages in total. Responses should be typed, single-spaced, single-sided and use 11 or 12-point type. You may answer questions individually or group them into one narrative for this section.

1. Brief summary of organization’s history and statement of organization’s mission

2. Brief description of current programs/projects and activities.

3. Evidence of organization’s overall effectiveness (please list achievement of specific organizational or program goals).

4. Description of population and geographic region (community/counties) served by this organization.

In general, the following narratives, which include Sections Three through Six, should not exceed four pages in total. Responses should be typed, single-spaced, single-sided and use 11 or 12-point type. You may answer questions individually or group them into one narrative for these sections.

SECTION THREE – STATEMENT OF NEED OR COMMUNITY BENEFIT

1. What is the problem, challenge or need that is unaddressed or unmet? Or what is the community benefit that this program or project will impart?

2. What is the research, statistic(s) or evidence that shows this need or benefit exists?

SECTION FOUR – PROGRAM/PROJECT DESCRIPTION & METHODOLOGY

1. Description of program/project, including:
 - a. Summary description of overall program/project to be funded under this grant

 - b. Brief description of goals and objectives for program/project

 - c. Timetable for implementation and duration of program/project

 - d. Evidence of use of best practices (For example, is this program/project based on a program that has been shown to be effective in other settings? Is it based on national standards?). If the initiative is a pilot project and has not been done before, please list assumptions on why new approach will succeed.

2. How and with whom will the organization collaborate on this particular program/project?

3. Why is your organization positioned to address this need or benefit (e.g., skills, location, etc.)?

4. How is your project different from similar existing projects at other organizations?

SECTION FIVE – EVALUATION AND RESULTS

Please see glossary for definition of “Outcomes,” as well as the guidelines before completing this section.

1. Provide specific short-term, intermediate and/or long-term outcomes of this program/project and the timeframe within which they will occur.

2. How will outcomes be measured and who (e.g. staff, consultant, etc.) will measure them?

3. How will the results be used and disseminated by your organization and/or others?

4. How will the project’s constituents and/or clients be actively involved in evaluating the project?

5. If this is an ongoing program/project or if its purpose is to provide direct support to an ongoing program/project, summarize past quantitative and qualitative outcomes of that program/project.

SECTION SIX – PROGRAM/PROJECT FUNDING PLANS

1. List of other funders to whom this current proposal has been and will be submitted. For each funder, indicate amount requested and status of request (e.g. “to be submitted,” “pending,” “funded,” or “declined”). If funded, specify amount of grant and date received.

2. Other anticipated funding for this current proposal including:
 - a. Earned revenue

 - b. In-kind support

 - c. Special events

 - d. Fundraisers, etc.

3. If this will be an ongoing program/project, describe plans and specific sources for future/long-term funding.

SECTION SEVEN – REQUIRED FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS

1. List of grants greater than $5,000 (including funder name, amount, and brief description) received during your organization's two most recently completed fiscal years.
2. Total organizational budget for current fiscal year* including a column showing the organization's year-to-date status (budget vs. actual).
3. Project request budget* for your entire project.
4. Two most recently completed Form 990s.
5. If your organization has an endowment greater than $100,000, please provide your endowment spending policy.
6. Additional financial forms including:

GLOSSARY

Capital Request – A planned undertaking to purchase, build or renovate a space or building, or to acquire equipment.

In-Kind Support – A contribution of equipment/materials, time, and or services that the donor has placed a monetary value on for tax purposes.

Methodology – A sequence of activities needed to accomplish the program objectives.

Operational Support – A grant given to cover an organization’s day-to-day expenses such as salaries, utilities, office supplies, etc.

Outcomes – The changes in (or benefits achieved by) individuals or communities due to their participation in program/project activities. This may include changes to participants’ knowledge, skills, values, behavior, condition or status. In general, outcomes are described in quantitative or qualitative terms.

Quantitative (or Measurable) outcomes - are changes or benefits that can be measured or counted and expressed with a numerical value. For example, 30 of the 40 third-grade students participating in the literacy program will increase their reading level by one grade level.

Qualitative outcomes - are changes or benefits that refer only to the characteristics of something being described, rather than exact numerical measurement. Qualitative changes can be observed (or detected through the senses) and are generally described in a narrative form. For example, the mother of a student participating in the literacy program stated that her daughter no longer feared reading aloud in class now that she could read at the same level as her classmates.

Program – An organized set of services designed to achieve specific outcomes for a specified population that will continue beyond the grant period.

Project – A planned undertaking or organized set of services designed to achieve specific outcomes that begins and ends within a specified time period. (A successful project may become an ongoing program.)

Technical Assistance – Operational or managerial assistance given to a nonprofit organization. It may include fundraising assistance, budgeting or financial planning, program planning, legal advice, marketing or other aids to management. Assistance may be offered directly by a foundation or corporate staff member or in the form of a grant to pay for the services of a consultant.
