

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 18, 2018

Local Contact: Sally Dunker, Executive Director
Dayton Bar Association
(937) 222-7902, sdunker@daybar.org

THE DBA ENDORSES ANDREW C. STORAR ESQ. AS A CANDIDATE FOR OSBA PRESIDENT-ELECT

(Dayton, Ohio December 18, 2018) —The Dayton Bar Association is pleased to announce their endorsement of longtime DBA Member and friend, Andrew C. Storar Esq., of the law firm Pickrel Schaeffer & Ebeling Co., LPA. Andrew will be running for OSBA President-Elect effective July 1, 2019.

Andrew C. Storar has distinguished himself in the legal profession through his dedicated leadership and service with the Dayton Bar Association, the Dayton Bar Association Foundation and the Ohio State Bar Association through membership in numerous committees.

The Board of Trustees of the Dayton Bar Association endorses, Andrew C. Storar, a proven and trusted leader, as a candidate for the office of President-Elect of the Ohio State Bar Association.

ABOUT THE DAYTON BAR ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1883, the DBA is dedicated to the administration of justice and the public's respect for the law. The organization of legal professionals consisting of more than 1,200-member Judges, Magistrates, Attorneys, Paralegals, Legal Administrators and Law Students work together to Raise the Bar of Excellence in the Legal Profession and serve the community in which they live and work.