Biography

Maggie Sayer
President/CEO of Keys Federal Credit Union

Maggie Sayer serves as President/CEO of Keys Federal Credit Union. She has worked in the financial industry for more than twenty years, the last eleven with the Credit Union where she also served the role of Information Technology Director. She holds two Bachelor of Arts degrees from Elon University as well as a Master of Business Administrator degree with a concentration in Information Security Management from Saint Leo University. She has accumulated several industry specific certifications including Certified Information Security Auditor (CISA), Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) and Certified Chief Information Security Officer (CCISO).

Ms. Sayer is an active member of the Key West Military Affairs Committee, the Marathon and Key West Chamber of Commerce, the Key West Business Guild and the Marathon Business and Professional Women (BPW) club. Ms. Sayer was born and raised in the Florida Keys and, in addition to being a current student and Professor on base at Naval Air Station Key West for Saint Leo University, she coaches several youth sports and is a Co-Director of the acclaimed 7 Mile Bridge Run. Ms. Sayer was also awarded the Kay Gradick Woman of the Year award in 2016 in recognition of her community involvement.