

The cross I wear as a member of The Order of the Daughters of the King® was blessed at the altar during a Service of Admission in the church and entrusted to me so long as I am a member. While the cross belongs to the Order, I wear it as an outward sign of the inward and spiritual grace that I gain through membership. I revere it and guard it with care. Should I resign I will return the cross to the Order.

When I depart this life I request that the cross of the Order be:

- Buried with me or placed inside my urn*
- Returned to the National Office

If the Order's cross is to be returned, please give it to a member of the chapter to which I belong, or to the Diocesan Assembly president if I am a Daughter-at-Large. They will send it to the National Office. If a chapter member or Diocesan Assembly President cannot be located it should be returned to the National Office directly.
