

Senior Daughters Workshop Schedule

Thursday, Session 1

3:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Workshop	Description/Presenter
A Challenge from the Original Prayer of The Order and Our Vows Sharon Lundgren	We will look at the wording of the Prayer of The Order and our vows from 1891 as a challenge to use today in our vision for ministry. Using a PowerPoint presentation, Sharon will share other tidbits of history that will excite and encourage us to hear what the Lord is asking of us today as Daughters of the King!
Beaded Cross Ornaments Vicki Patterson	Participants will design and create a unique beaded cross suitable for use as a pendant or ornament.
Beauty for Ashes - Communing with God through Art Sandy Carlman	Each participant will create an 8x10 collage to express her present state of emotions (praise, joy, peace, grief, doubt, etc.) as she relates to God this day. The creative process will be emphasized, rather than the product. All materials will be provided.
Bylaws Forum	An Open House format from 3:00 pm until 5:15 pm allows participants to discuss and ask questions about the proposed revision of the Bylaws. Participants need not attend the entire session.
Compassion for a Hurting World Reverend Janice Krause	Using Karen Armstrong's work, Daughters will learn the necessity of compassion and will be empowered with the tools to become more compassionate.
Designing Chapter Meetings for Spiritual Growth Reverend Dr. Michael Gemignani	Chapter meetings should be instruments for spiritual growth. This workshop will provide the tools to help chapters achieve this purpose.
Evangelism 101 Reverend Clayton Elder	"As the Father has sent me, so I send you ." John 20:21. With just a few powerful words, Jesus transmits both the essence of the Good News, and our responsibility as its recipients. In our time together we will unpack this message and responsibility, break it down into its simple everyday life applications and see how it begins and ends in the power of the Trinity. When we "Walk HIS Way" we don't walk alone, but with all the body of Christ and empowered by the Holy Trinity to both walk and share his way with others.
Follow St. Francis' Example to Walk HIS Way Kathy Wohnoutka	Participants will explore and discuss the teachings of St. Francis of Assisi on evangelism and create a booklet with a plan to increase evangelism activities in their lives.
"Lord, What Will You Have Me Do?" Nancy Kelly	Discovering her spiritual gifts through prayer, scripture reading and a self-evaluation quiz, the participant will gain insight into her spiritual gifts that will help the participant "Walk HIS Way".
Sacred Spaces Reverend Mia McDowell	The workshop will provide participants with ideas for creating a sacred space for prayer, meditation, and contemplation for "Walking HIS Way."
Walk HIS Way with Prayer Beads Linda Rines	Participants will learn how prayer beads and contemplative prayer enable Daughters to "Walk HIS Way" and facilitate evangelism. At the end of the workshop, each participant will leave with prayer beads they made themselves and a handout about prayer beads and contemplative prayer.
Walking HIS Way at Christ Church, Jerusalem Carol Pileggi	With a background of over 200 years of service, the church's ministry among Jewish people has equipped the church to share how to "Walk HIS Way" through evangelism and prayer an education about the Jewish root of the Christian faith. Participants will also learn the history of the first Daughters' chapter in the Middle East.

Senior Daughters Workshop Schedule

Thursday, Session 2

4:15 pm - 5:15 pm

Workshop	Description/Presenter
Bringing Up the Next Generation of Daughters Anna Stevenson and Jen Mariano	Guidelines to transition Junior Daughters to become the next generation of Daughters will be presented.
Bylaws Forum	An Open House format from 3:00 pm until 5:15 pm allows participants to discuss and ask questions about the proposed revision of the Bylaws. Participants need not attend the entire session.
Evangelism - Begins in the Heart, Not in Words Reverend Dr. Kathleen Price	Participants will be led in a discussion about relationship with God and one another. Evangelism is about sharing our story of how God has made a difference in our lives.
Evangelism 101 Reverend Clayton Elder	"As the Father has sent me, so I send you ." John 20:21. With just a few powerful words, Jesus transmits both the essence of the Good News, and our responsibility as its recipients. In our time together we will unpack this message and responsibility, break it down into its simple everyday life applications and see how it begins and ends in the power of the Trinity. When we "Walk HIS Way" we don't walk alone, but with all the body of Christ and empowered by the Holy Trinity to both walk and share his way with others.
Gospel Boxes Andrea Evans	Gospel Boxes are a new and unique way to share the good news of Jesus Christ. Participants will see a demonstration of the Gospel Boxes, learn the Scriptural references for the colors of the Gospel Boxes, and hear stories of how Gospel Boxes may be used in various settings.
Mandalas - Finding Your Own Way Terry Krawitz	Using ink pens and coloring pencils, participants will be able to design and color their own mandala. Based on the work of Dr. Max Lüscher, as well as Carl Jung, coloring is a tool that can be used for praying, to relieve stress and relax.
National Enrichment Leaders Training Christine Budzowski and Barbara Shreve	Learn how to recognize, cultivate, and raise up new leaders from your chapters and assemblies with training led by the National Enrichment Training Team facilitators.
Poetry As Prayer Marilyn Zwicker	The presenter will describe the process of using one's surroundings to get to an inner place to write poems and prayers. Participants will be encouraged to write and share.
Sacred Spaces for Me Caroline Armstrong	This workshop provides hands-on experience to help participants discern their prayer preferences for a more meaningful prayer life.
Triennial Choir Linda Patterson	Calling all Singers! Join the "Triennial Choir!" If you would like to learn the anthem and descants for the Closing Eucharist, come to the 4:15 rehearsals to practice the songs with the Glory Bound Singers. This is your opportunity to be a part of the first-ever Triennial Choir. Linda Patterson welcomes everyone to a fun, uplifting time together. Preregistration is needed so that we will have enough copies for everyone. Come one, come all!
Walk HIS Way with Prayer Beads Linda Rines	Participants will learn how prayer beads and contemplative prayer enable Daughters to "Walk HIS Way" and facilitate evangelism. At the end of the workshop, each participant will leave with prayer beads they made themselves and a handout about prayer beads and contemplative prayer.

Senior Daughters Workshop Schedule

Friday, Session 1

3:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Workshop	Description/Presenter
Beaded Cross Ornaments Vicki Patterson	Participants will design and create a unique beaded cross suitable for use as a pendant or ornament. Workshop Full
Compassion for a Hurting World Reverend Janice Krause	Using Karen Armstrong's work, Daughters will learn the necessity of compassion and will be empowered with the tools to become more compassionate.
Designing Chapter Meetings for Spiritual Growth Reverend Dr. Michael Gemignani	Chapter meetings should be instruments for spiritual growth. This workshop will provide the tools to help chapters achieve this purpose.
Evangelism 101 Reverend Clayton Elder	"As the Father has sent me, so I send you ." John 20:21. With just a few powerful words, Jesus transmits both the essence of the Good News, and our responsibility as its recipients. In our time together we will unpack this message and responsibility, break it down into its simple everyday life applications and see how it begins and ends in the power of the Trinity. When we "Walk HIS Way" we don't walk alone, but with all the body of Christ and empowered by the Holy Trinity to both walk and share his way with others.
Follow St. Francis' Example to Walk HIS Way Kathy Wohnoutka	Participants will explore and discuss the teachings of St. Francis of Assisi on evangelism and create a booklet with a plan to increase evangelism activities in their lives.
Gospel Boxes Andrea Evans	Gospel Boxes are a new and unique way to share the good news of Jesus Christ. Participants will see a demonstration of the Gospel Boxes, learn the Scriptural references for the colors of the Gospel Boxes, and hear stories of how Gospel Boxes may be used in various settings. Workshop Full
How to Walk HIS Way in Grief Reverend Kristi Alday	This workshop will help participants understand the complexities of grief and how to work with someone in grief.
National Enrichment Leaders Training Christine Budzowski and Barbara Shreve	Learn how to recognize, cultivate, and raise up new leaders from your chapters and assemblies with training led by the National Enrichment Training Team facilitators.
Poetry As Prayer Marilyn Zwicker	The presenter will describe the process of using one's surroundings to get to an inner place to write poems and prayers. Participants will be encouraged to write and share.
Sacred Spaces Reverend Mia McDowell	The workshop will provide participants with ideas for creating a sacred space for prayer, meditation, and contemplation for "Walking HIS Way."
Walk HIS Way with Prayer Beads Linda Rines	Participants will learn how prayer beads and contemplative prayer enable Daughters to "Walk HIS Way" and facilitate evangelism. At the end of the workshop, each participant will leave with prayer beads they made themselves and a handout about prayer beads and contemplative prayer. Workshop Full

Senior Daughters Workshop Schedule

Friday, Session 2
4:15 pm -5:15 pm

Workshop	Description/Presenter
A Challenge from the Original Prayer of The Order and Our Vows Sharon Lundgren	We will look at the wording of the Prayer of The Order and our vows from 1891 as a challenge to use today in our vision for ministry. Using a PowerPoint presentation, Sharon will share other tidbits of history that will excite and encourage us to hear what the Lord is asking of us today as Daughters of the King!
Bringing Up the Next Generation of Daughters Anna Stevenson and Jen Mariano	Guidelines to transition Junior Daughters to become the next generation of Daughters will be presented.
Evangelism - Begins in the Heart, Not in Words Reverend Dr. Kathleen Price	Participants will be led in a discussion about relationship with God and one another. Evangelism is about sharing our story of how God has made a difference in our lives.
How to Walk HIS Way in Grief Reverend Kristi Alday	This workshop will help participants understand the complexities of grief and how to work with someone in grief.
International Daughters	International Daughters will tell their stories about their lives and service as Daughters of the King, particularly focusing on evangelism.
"Lord, What Will You Have Me Do?" Nancy Kelly	Discovering her spiritual gifts through prayer, scripture reading and a self-evaluation quiz, the participant will gain insight into her spiritual gifts that will help the participant "Walk HIS Way".
Mandalas - Finding Your Own Way Terry Krawitz	Using ink pens and coloring pencils, participants will be able to design and color their own mandala. Based on the work of Dr. Max Lascher, as well as Carl Jung, coloring is a tool that can be used for praying, to relieve stress and relax.
Sacred Spaces for Me Caroline Armstrong	This workshop provides hands-on experience to help participants discern their prayer preferences for a more meaningful prayer life.
Triennial Choir Linda Patterson	Calling all Singers! Join the "Triennial Choir!" If you would like to learn the anthem and descants for the Closing Eucharist, come to the 4:15 rehearsals to practice the songs with the Glory Bound Singers. This is your opportunity to be a part of the first-ever Triennial Choir. Linda Patterson welcomes everyone to a fun, uplifting time together. Preregistration is needed so that we will have enough copies for everyone. Come one, come all!
Walk HIS Way with Prayer Beads Linda Rines	Participants will learn how prayer beads and contemplative prayer enable Daughters to "Walk HIS Way" and facilitate evangelism. At the end of the workshop, each participant will leave with prayer beads they made themselves and a handout about prayer beads and contemplative prayer.
Walking HIS Way at Christ Church, Jerusalem Carol Pileggi	With a background of over 200 years of service, the church's ministry among Jewish people has equipped the church to share how to "Walk HIS Way" through evangelism and prayer an education about the Jewish root of the Christian faith. Participants will also learn the history of the first Daughters' chapter in the Middle East.
Walking HIS Way On the Pilgrimage Path Pam Runyon	Pam Runyon and her husband have walked over 2500 miles on six pilgrimages to Santiago, Spain and Rome, Italy. She will share some of her experiences and opportunities for evangelism on the way. Although everyone cannot walk hundreds of miles on pilgrimage, we all have opportunities to walk alongside others, finding joy in the journey.