

EANS 10th Annual Young Neurosurgeons' Meeting & Research Course

Special Guest "The English Surgeon" Henry Marsh!
26 - 28 March 2020 | Zurich, Switzerland

Research Course, Zürich, March 26th, 2020

10.00 – 10.15: Introduction to the Research Course – Aki Laakso

HOW TO PREPARE FOR APPLICATION

10.15 – 10.30: How to apply for EANS Research Fund? – TBA

10.30 – 10.45: How do I win the EANS Research Prize? - Katrin Rabiei

RESEARCH QUESTION

10.45 – 11.00: PICO – how to formulate a research question – Florian Ringel

11.00 – 11.45: WORKSHOP: Critical Review of a Paper - Miikka Korja, Aki Laakso, Katrin Rabiei, Florian Ringel

- Short report/paper send to all participants 2 weeks prior to meeting
- Attendees will perform a critical review of a given paper following the guidelines presented.

11.45 – 12.30: Lunch

12.30 – 13.30: WORKSHOP: How to Define a Hypothesis – Angelos Kolias, Türker Kilic, Gleb Danilov, Lorenzo Bello

- Attendees will define their research question and describe a hypothesis related to a research proposal – research ideas provided by the faculty

13.30 – 14.30: WORKSHOP: How to Write a Research Plan – Radoslaw Rola, Athanasios Chatziosotiriou, Jan Berkelbach, Guy Rosenthal

- Attendees will draft and present a research project plan for permission/funding on the research question defined in the previous workshop session

14.30 – 14.45: Coffee break

14.45 – 15.05: How Do I Submit a Paper - Guy Rosenthal

15.05 – 15.25: Why Was My Manuscript Rejected – a reviewer's perspective - Lorenzo Bello

15.25 – 16.00: How Do I Give a Groovy but Scientific Talk - TBA

16.00 – 16.15: Coffee break

16.15 – 16.45: Special topic: Introduction to Artificial Intelligence in Neurosurgical Research – Gleb Danilov

16.45 – 18.15: Presentations by the shortlisted 2020 Aesculap EANS Research Prize candidates

18.15 Close of the Meeting