

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface.....	V
Biographical Sketches.....	XI
Introduction
Amos Rapoport, An Approach to the Study of Environmental Quality	1
Nicholas Negroponte, Environmental Humanism Through Robots	14
James Fitch, Architectural Manipulation of Space, Time and Gravity	18
Performance Systems
Peter Batchelor, Residential Space Systems: Generic and Specific Concepts of Urban Structural Analysis	33
Michael Brill and Richard Krauss, Planning for Community Mental Health Centers: The Performance Approach	45
Francis Duffy and James Friedman, Patterns and Semiology	60
Stuart Silverstone, Chairman's Comments	73
Environmental Attributes
Raymond Craun, Visual Determinants of Preferences for Dwelling Environs	75
Robert Hershberger, A Study of Meaning and Architecture	86
George Peterson, Robert Bishop and Edward Neumann, The Quality of Visual Residential Environments	101
Dan Carson, Chairman's Comments	115
Environmental Quality
William Mitchell, Switching on the Seven Lamps	116
Fred Steel, Problem Solving in the Spatial Environment	127
Richard Wilkinson, Chairman's Comments	137
Problem Solving Methods in Design
Charles Eastman, Theoretical Premises of Problem Solving	138
Joseph Ballay, Visual Information Processing in Problem Solving Situations	154
Isao Oishi, Towards The Computerization of Architecture: A Theoretical Framework and a Partial Computer Program	165
John Grason, Fundamental Description of a Floor Plan Design Program	175
Charles Eastman, Chairman's Comments	181
Human Responses to the Environment
William Michelson, Analytic Sampling for Design Information: A Survey of Housing Experiences	183
Richard Worrall, George Peterson and M. J. Redding, Toward a Theory of Accessibility Acceptance	198
Ray Studer, Chairman's Comments	211

Environmental Perception

Stuart Rose, Towards a Stimulus-Response Theory of Environmental Design	215
Gary Winkel, Roger Malek, and Philip Thiel, A Study of Human Response to Selected Roadside Environments	224
Dan Carson, Chairman's Comments	241

Attitudinal Responses to the Environment

Wolfgang Preiser, Behavioral Design Criteria in Student Housing	243
Man Sawhney, Chairman's Comments	260

Models in Planning

Wilferd Holton, Bernard Kramer, Peter New, Grazia Marzot, Locational Decisions: Objectives and Consequences	262
Edward Kaiser, A Decision Agent Modeling an Approach to Planning for Urban Residential Growth . . .	280
George Hemmens, Chairman's Comments	292

Decision Models

Charles Burnette, Toward a Theory of Technical Description for Architecture	294
William Miller, Matrix Method for Grouping an Interrelated Set of Elements	304
Donald Watson, Modelling the Activity System	318
Murray Milne, Chairman's Comments	327

Participatory Planning

Ralph Brill, Eric Castro, A. J. Pennington, The Community Development Workshop	329
Henry Burgwyn, Identifying Community Leaders	334
David Godschalk, Negotiate: An Experimental Planning Game	345
Barry Jackson, Chairman's Comments	350

Design Education

John Peterson and Leonard Lansky, An Experimental Approach to the Study of Critical Judgement in Design	351
George Bireline, Towards An Experimental Program in Design Education	356
Marvin Sevely, Chairman's Comments	361
