

ESSKA Teaching Centre (T.C) Accreditation - Terms & Conditions

- [ 1 ] Any Teaching Centre (clinic, hospital or institution) can apply for accreditation by ESSKA. (See Teaching Centre Criteria)
- [ 2 ] The Teaching Centre should apply by filling in the online application form.
- [ 3 ] The application will be processed four times a year.
- [ 4 ] If the application is successful, the Teaching Centre will receive a formal letter of Accreditation/Certificate and be published on ESSKA's website in the list of accredited Teaching Centres.
- [ 5 ] The Teaching Centre should then appoint a liaison (preferably with a back-up) who has the authority to deal with ESSKA requests.
- [ 6 ] In accepting ESSKA's Accreditation, the Teaching Centre must:
  - a. undertakes certain duties of teaching and hospitality. Specifically, it agrees to host at least one ESSKA Fellow each year for its fellowship programme(s), when that is mutually convenient.
  - b. maintain certain standards of hospitality and competence towards ESSKA's Fellowship holders and be prepared to contribute financially (up to a mutually agreed sum) for International Travelling Fellowships (if applicable).
- [ 7 ] The Teaching Centre should respond within three weeks to any request from ESSKA, when that request concerns a Fellowship or any other educational programme.
- [ 8 ] The Teaching Centre must renew its Accreditation every five years.
- [ 9 ] If the Teaching Centre fails in its' obligations, ESSKA has the right to rescind that T.C's Accreditation.