Abstract Submission Criteria

Topic, Language

- Each contribution must relate to the acromionclavicular joint (ACJ).
- The language of submission and presentation is English.

Size, Content

- The abstract is limited to 3,000 characters (approx. 400 words).
- The following structure of the abstract is mandatory: Purpose, Methods, Results and Conclusions.
- The abstract must contain authors’ names and affiliations. The presenting author must provide contact information (email address).
- The abstract must be text only, no images, graphics or tables.
- Concerning the methods, it has to be clear if the study is prospective or retrospective. Statistical procedures have to be specified. The setup of experimental studies has to be documented.
- Results have to contain all relevant data.
- Abbreviations must be defined at first usage.
- The usage of special formatting should be limited.

Conditions, Requirements

- At least one of the authors must be an ESA member. The presenting author must be an ESA member.
- It is prohibited to include any company or product names in the abstract title, abstract text or keywords. Non-observance automatically results in the refusal of the abstract.
- The authors responsible for the compliance with data protection, copyrights, ethic regulations and laws on animal protection.
- Authors’ fees or royalties cannot be claimed.
- All listed authors have to consent to the abstract text as well as to their publication in all congress media.
- Conflicts of interest through commercial benefits have to be disclosed.

Review, Registration

- All submitted abstracts will be reviewed anonymously by the scientific committee of the meeting.
- Abstracts that show formal errors (multi-submission, not anonymized, already published) will be rejected.
- Email notifications about acceptance or refusal will be sent to the presenting author subsequent to the reviewing process.