SEM Membership Print-Free Option

A Membership Print-Free Option is now available at the same dues levels that apply to regular print memberships. If you select this option, you will no longer receive a print copy of the journal Ethnomusicology, a paper membership renewal mailing, or other SEM paper correspondence. All correspondence will be sent to you electronically and, as is the case with regular print memberships, you will have online access to Ethnomusicology (from 2008 to the current issue) through JSTOR’s Current Scholarship Program. If you choose the Print-Free Option, you will need to renew your membership each year in order to retain access to past content. Hard copies of past volumes will no longer be sitting on your bookshelves!

SEM Website Members’ Area

Sign in to the SEM website (www.ethnomusicology.org) with your username and password to access the Members’ Area of the site. Here you can access and edit your member profile, search the Membership Directory, read the SEM Newsletter, view job announcements in the Career Center, and access member discounts and other information. Signing in first will also allow you to retrieve your current membership information when renewing your membership. If you are joining SEM for the first time, you will be able to access the Members’ Area after your membership is processed (generally within two days).

Edit Your Profile in the SEM Membership Directory

Sign in to the SEM website with your username and password to edit your profile in the SEM Membership Directory. Select “Manage Profile” and “Edit Bio.” Update your postal address and email address to ensure that you will receive the journal, newsletter notices, and other SEM communications. Edit your Research Interests to connect with other members.

Send Member News

Please share any news about your own work or the work of your institution by sending a message to Jennifer Milioto Matsue, SEM Newsletter Editor, at matsuej@union.edu.

SEM Member Access to Ethnomusicology via JSTOR (included in SEM membership dues)

SEM members have electronic access to the journal Ethnomusicology (from 2008 to the current issue) through JSTOR’s Current Scholarship Program. After purchasing your membership, you will receive an email from JSTOR with instructions and a password. Please allow two weeks from the date of purchase to receive the JSTOR email.

SEM Member Access to the Backfile of Ethnomusicology via JSTOR ($10 additional fee)

Individual access via JSTOR to the journal Ethnomusicology (from 2008 to the current issue) is included in your SEM membership. For an additional $10 fee, SEM members may obtain individual access via JSTOR to issues of the journal back to 1953. This option may be of interest to members who do not have JSTOR access through their home institution. After purchasing backfile access, you will receive an email from JSTOR with instructions and a password. Please allow two weeks from the date of purchase to receive the JSTOR email.

Special Discounts for SEM Members

Discounts for SEM members are currently available from Smithsonian Folkways Recordings, the University of Illinois Press, and Oxford University Press. For details, please sign in to the SEM website and select Members’ Area / Member Discounts.
