

Newly Admitted Attorney Orientation

Presented by the Young Lawyers Section

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2019

Program | 1:00 - 5:00 PM

Happy Hour | 5:00 - 7:00 PM

Fairfax County Courthouse (Courtroom TBD)

$30 per Registrant | 2.5 MCLE Credits (Pending)

This year's program has been re-vamped from years past to now include a session to assist young attorneys navigate specifically the Circuit Court Clerk's Office – including a discussion on initial filings/fees, daily orders, Calendar Control, the Friday Motions Docket and the Differentiated Case Tracking Program. Young lawyers will still get to meet with Fairfax County Judges, Clerks of Court, and various local practicing attorneys – all of whom will help you navigate the practice of law and familiarize you with local rules and procedures. Newly admitted attorneys and attorneys new to the Northern Virginia area will be informed of the many opportunities for professional growth and development as well as local social and networking events. Topics include the administrative process of the Fairfax County Circuit Court, General District Court and the Juvenile and Domestic Relations District Court, Navigating the Circuit Court Clerk's Office, and the role of an attorney as advocate and as an officer of the Court.

The program also includes a tour of the Fairfax County Courthouse which is designed to give you a behind the scenes look at the inner workings from the perspective of the staff.

Please bring your business cards to the happy hour to enter for a chance to win one of several raffle prizes.
