WINTER PARK, FL – Full Sail Real World Education is pleased to congratulate Recording Arts graduate, Marc Fishman, for being named to the Career College Association Hall of Fame.

Fishman graduated from Full Sail in 1990 and has worked his way through the industry in a variety of positions ranging from assistant to his current position as re-recording mixer. Prior to this, Fishman joined Digital Sound & Picture where he was able to establish himself working on films such as Legally Blonde and The Wedding Planner. Since 1999, he has been a member of the Todd-AO Studio team and has mixed on films such as: We Were Soldiers, Nacho Libre, and the 2006 Academy Award winner for Best Picture, Crash. Most recently, Fishman worked on the Don Cheadle film, Talk to Me and Slipstream, a film directed by Sir Anthony Hopkins. On average he mixes six to eight films per year.

The Career College Association (CCA) is a voluntary membership organization of accredited, private postsecondary schools, institutes, colleges and universities that provide career-specific educational programs. Members of the CCA Hall of Fame are career college graduates who have attained outstanding success within their industry. CCA Hall of Fame members recognized includes celebrity chef's, Alton Brown and Bobby Flay, actor Julio Cedillio and Pulitzer Prize winning photographer, Carol Guzy.

"It is an incredible honor to celebrate Marc's outstanding achievement," said Garry Jones, President of Full Sail. "The quality of Marc's work and success within the entertainment industry is a testament to the level of education we provide. Marc's induction into the Career College Hall of Fame is an inspiration to our staff, faculty, current students and graduates across all disciplines of study."

Since 1979, Full Sail Real World Education, a college outside of Orlando, FL, has been an innovative educational leader for those pursuing careers in the entertainment industry.
