PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATION

Professional Membership is for an individual currently employed at a FAPSC Member institution or who has previously been employed within the past two (2) years at a FAPSC Member institution. If the professional member is not currently employed at a FAPSC member institution during application and later gains employment at an eligible member institution that is not a current FAPSC member; their professional membership may continue only if, the school joins FAPSC within 180 days of their employment. After the 180 days of employment and the school does not secure an institutional membership, the professional membership will terminate. Professional members not affiliated with a FAPSC member institution may only receive this level of membership for no more than two (2) consecutive years. If after the two (2) years the professional member is not affiliated with a FAPSC member institution, their membership will cease.
